

Location Troubleshooting

Please ensure you have not enabled any pop-up blocker or ad-blocker on your browser. This prevents the message for allowing location services to be activated.

Ensure you have enabled Device Location Services on your electronic device

iOS Mobile Devices

1. Go to the Settings App.
2. Go to 'Privacy'.
3. Go into 'Location Services'.
4. Ensure 'Location Services' are on.
5. Scroll down and click 'Safari Websites'.
6. Make sure that Allow Location Access is set to "While Using the App."

*Chrome has the same setting if you are using that instead

MacOS Desktop

Check if Location Services is turned on

1. Open 'System Preferences'
2. Select 'Security & Privacy'
3. Select 'Privacy' tab
4. Ensure 'Location Services' is checked
5. If it is not checked click the lock icon in bottom right corner of that window to make changes
6. Enter in your username and password
7. Check the 'Enable Location Services' checkbox

8. If it is checked, look at the list of allowed applications and make sure the web browser you are using is also checked. Note that Chrome will not show up here, but Safari and Firefox will.
