ADAM DANT

The Critics Perpetual Drinking Calendar

2019
50 x 70.7 cm

Poster print on 170gsm Munken Lynx paper
Signed by the artist
Limited edition of 300

A handsome poster showing occasions, events and individuals, common, royal and aristocratic, worthy of toasting.

"Some people never need an excuse to have a drink. For those less fortunate the critic's perpetual drinking calendar offers 365 of them (and a bonus tipple on the leap year) occasions for toasting such as the Queen's birthday, the anniversary of Trafalgar, or the invention of the drinking straw are joined by opportunities to toast the lives of the famously bibulous on what would otherwise be just another day. Legendary devotees of the tap, bottle and jigger such as Dorothy Parker, Sultan Selim II and Arthur Rimbaud are each afforded their own special day, colour coded according to the well-stocked cellar of colour-coded libations."
