

Labelling information to meet: REGULATION (EC) No 1272/2008

To be used along with more detailed information given in the above regulation for Spiced Cappuccino Candle CHQ1005C

Requirements

what needs to be shown (text in this column & in black)

a	the name, address and telephone number of the supplier(s)		client to complete b	the nominal quantity in the package made available to the general public		client to complete c1	the UFI, unique formulation identifier, may be required		client to provide when required c2	product identifiers (see Article 18)		Spiced Cappuccino Candle CHQ1005C
d	hazard pictograms (see Article 19)		no pictograms
e	signal words (see Article 20)		none
f	hazard statements (see Article 21)		none
g	General precautionary statements (see Article 22)	P102	Keep out of reach of children.
	Prevention precautionary statements (see Article 22)		none
h	supplemental information (see Article 25)		Safety data sheet available on request

Disclaimer: This document omits the Precautionary statements that are generally considered to be for a business or workplace (the full list is shown on the safety data sheet) and includes two of the three General Precautionary statements that may be included. Further information is given in the Regulation 1272/2008. The responsibility for what appears on the labels rests with the company who brings the product to market.

Disclaimer: This document omits any reference to information relating to the Poison Centre Identifier. This may need to be shown on packaging from January 2021.