Burgundy

Our new white Macon -Villages 2022 £15.50 per bottle (Gold medal awarded) and Macon Lugny 2022 £17.95 per bottle have both now arrived. These two outstanding Macon's from the 2022 vintage were both tasted by us last October in Burgundy. Both drinking superbly now.

The consistent white, Burgundy Ladoix 2020 Domaine Louis Jadot is exceptional value at only £29.50 per bottle.

The 2020 Ladoix Le Clou d'Orge (Domaine Gagey) is a ripe, fleshy rendition of a cuvée that's generally quite chiselled. Bursting with aromas of orange oil and honeyed peaches, it's medium to full-bodied, broad, and textural, though it retains lively balancing acidity. 90/100 WA

The 2020 vintage has turned out beautifully at this address, delivering concentrated, flavourful wines with alcohol levels between 13.3% and 13.7% and with low pHs. Winemaker Frédéric Barnier told me that efforts were made to pick earlier in the day, and that fruit waiting to be processed was kept fresh in a special cold room. In the cellar, foudres and 500-liter barrels now complement classic 228-liter pieces, a further evolution adapting to warmer, riper vintages.

If Ladoix isn't as well-known as it should be, it is because the small village lies at the bottom of a famous landmark: the hill of Corton. Ladoix is an appellation for still, dry, red, and white wines produced from fruit grown in the commune of Ladoix-Serrigny at the northern end of the Côte de Beaune subregion of Burgundy. It is located just north of Beaune and directly below the eastern slopes of the Corton hill. The latter is the source of the Côte de Beaune's only Grand Cru red wines.

White, Burgundy of the month-

Saint Veran 2021 Joseph Drouhin £300.00 per case 12/1 £25.00 per bottle inc vat

A wine that smiles and makes you smile! It is stylistically close to Pouilly-Fuissé, with its golden hue, its greenish reflection, and its refreshing taste. The aromas are reminiscent of the ripe Chardonnay grape, with subtle notes of musk. A pleasant roundness coats the palate.

We are pleased to offer the new release of Joseph Drouhin white, Burgundy Rully 2022.

As always, this wine has been a firm favourite for reliability and high quality, the 2022 vintage is an outstanding year in both reds & whites.

Rully Blanc 2022 Joseph Drouhin £383.40 per case 12/1 £31.95 per bottle

A wine full of charm! The colour is a beautiful white gold, with a ravishing purity and brilliance. The aromas are fresh and fruity, with nuances of broom shrub, almond and delicious preserved citrus notes. On the palate, it is fresh and elegant. A long and delicious aftertaste makes for a lasting impression.

Strong buy- Burgundy- Delicious.

Pouilly Fuisse 2021 Domaine Ferret £396.00 per case 12/1 £33.00 per bottle inc vat.

Located in the heart of the Mâconnais, Domaine Ferret has been exploring the richness of Pouilly-Fuissé's terroirs since 1840. The history of the property has been intertwined with that of a series of strong women (who's current incumbent is Audrey Braccini), who have helped raise the profile of the great Chardonnay-based wines from this part of Southern Burgundy.

New purchase from Spain, this fabulous Sauvignon Blanc is being served in all the top restaurants in the Valencia region, Medal awarded.

The Sanz family planted Sauvignon Blanc in the beautiful high altitude Finca La Colina vineyard in 1980. Today, 40 years on this vineyard is producing what is considered by many as Spain's best Sauvignon Blanc.

La Colina Sauvignon Blanc 2021/2022 £17.50 per bottle

Tasting Notes: Pale yellow, brilliant white wine with intense aromas and full and unctuous on the palate. Slightly glycerous with just the right acidic bite and pleasantly long lasting. Gastronomy: Perfect with grilled or baked fish, a good match for more complex rice dishes with fish serving.

10 cases Magnums £216.00 per case 6 mags £39.00 per magnum inc vat

The 2016 Beaumont has quite a powerful bouquet with dense black fruit, boysenberry and cedar, traces of pencil lead developing with aeration. The palate is medium bodied with fine tannin, quite spicy compared to its peers, then it reins everything back in for what a refined finish is. Classy stuff. Tasted at the Cru Bourgeois tasting in London. Drink 2021 onwards. 91/100 Neil Martin

Chateau Branas Grand Poujeaux 2011- direct from the Château, Moulis en Médoc.

I had the pleasure to taste this wine last November in the UK, not often do I take notice of a wine from the 2011 vintage, but this wine was outstanding, the colour, nose and fruit were all wonderful. On further enquiries to the Chateau, we found out that the wine was selected as the number 1 in a blind tasting beating several Cru Classes' like Chateau Pontet Canet, Tertre Rotebouef and Beausejour Becot. Tasting was conducted by Neil Martin wine writer.

The nose is quite delicate, fruit-forward, clean, and complex, with notes of fresh red fruits, peach, and some subtle floral hints. 10 cases Janisson-Baradon Grande Reserve Epernay Magnums £360.00 case 6/1 £60.00 inc vat mag

Janisson Baradon, established in 1922, produces fine quality Champagnes. Janisson Baradon is a fifth generation of family business based in Epernay. Its champagnes are produced using grapes grown from its own vineyards, which span 22 acres.

The grapes come from three champagne vines in different terrains, which give the champagnes their distinctive taste. The emphasis is very much on quality, and this is reflected in the number of awards that they have won in France. This champagne has 5 years of bottle age.

Expressive wine that makes a good introduction to the house style. Clean veins of minerality support the fruit in this mid-weight, attractive wine. Pears, flowers are nicely layered into the finish. Superb value.

20 cases Andre Clouet Rose Champagne £348.00 case 12/1 £29.00 inc vat bt
5 cases Magnums £372.00 case 6/1 £62.00 inc vat mag

Clouet family is a family of winemakers whose origins, as they say, "got lost in the mists of time". Its founder was a printer in the Versailles court of Louis XV and for several generations, their descendants continued this work. This peculiar style "Ancien Regime" on their labels is a tribute to the founder of the house. It took more than two centuries and several generations of Clouet to get plots of vines in the terroir of Bouzy, which remain in the hands of the family of its founder. Bouzy is situated in the southern part of the Mountain of Reims.

The rose Champagne has lively, pink bubbles. Excellent deep colour and a beautiful nose filled with strawberry, raspberry, and almonds. On the palate the champagne is creamy and fruity, excellent with both food and as an aperitif on that special night.

Outstanding rose!! 92/100 Stephen Tanzer.

10 cases Pol Roger Blanc de Blanc 2015 £552.00 per case 6/1 bottles £92.00 bottle inc vat

Pol Roger's newly released 2015 Brut Blanc de Blancs is very appealing, unwinding in the glass with scents of crisp orchard fruit, citrus zest, sourdough bread, pastry cream and almonds. Medium to full-bodied, taut, and incisive, it's more chiselled than the richer, more concentrated 2012, with racy acids and a gently reductive edge, concluding with chalky grip. This is a real classic in style and should develop beautifully with age on cork. 93/100 WA

10 cases Pol Roger Brut 2016 £510.00 per case 6/1 bottles £85.00 bottle inc vat

Alluring aromas of lemon peel, tarte au citron and freshly baked madeleines. With time in the glass, more savoury earth aromas such as roasted hazelnuts and marmalade develop, showcasing the many layers of complexity of this Champagne. On the palate, the wine has a firm backbone of acidity, balanced with the characteristically rich, broad Pinot Noir for which Pol Roger is known.

5 cases Pol Roger Winston Churchill 2015 £1320.00 per case 6/1 bottles £230.00 per bottle inc vat
1 case Magnums £1380.00 per case 3 mags £460.00 per mag inc vat

A strong effort in a less-acclaimed vintage, Pol Roger's newly released 2015 Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill opens in the glass with aromas of confit citrus, ripe orchard fruits and dried white flowers mingled with hints of honeycomb, freshly baked bread, and anise. Medium to full-bodied, vinous, and concentrated, with bright acids, chalky structuring extract, and a pinpoint mousse, this inherently rather rich, gastronomic Champagne is quite tightly wound out of the gates and will reward a bit of bottle age. Stylistically, it is somewhat reminiscent of a modern-day version of the 1985.94/100 RP.

2 cases Dom Perignon 2012 £1350.00 per case 6 bottles £225.00 per bottle inc vat

The 2012 Dom Pérignon has turned out very well indeed, unwinding in the glass with notes of Anjou pear, smoke, toasted nuts, freshly baked bread, and crisp stone fruit. Medium to full-bodied, deep, and concentrated, it's still tightly wound, its incipiently fleshy core of fruit framed by racy acids and chalky grip, complemented by a classy pinpoint mousse. A touch drier and a touch less reductive than the 2008 out of the gates, these two vintages are clearly destined to be compared for some time to come; but at this early stage, my instinct is that the 2012 will have the edge in the long term. 96+/100 RP

2 cases Dom Perignon 2013 £1200.00 per case 6 bottles £200.00 per bt inc vat
 Disgorged in October last year, the 2013 Dom Pérignon is a lovely wine, defined by the long, cool growing season. Offering up aromas of crisp stone fruit, tangerine oil, buttered toast, pear, almonds, and clear honey, it's medium to full-bodied, ample, and seamless, with bright acids and a pillowy, enveloping profile, concluding with a long, saline finish. Vincent Chaperon recalls that shatter at fruit set moderated yields and that a drying east wind in the weeks before harvest helped to maintain the good sanitation necessary to wait to pick at full maturity. 95+/100 RP

Method Champanoise/sparkling wine.

Founded in 1885, Langlois-Chateau have been making wine in the Loire Valley for more than 130 years. In 1973, the estate was bought by the Bollinger Family who recognised the quality of the estate's wines, and Langlois-Chateau have not looked back since. Significant investment by the Bollinger Family within the vineyard and the cellar, alongside sharing their knowledge of the method traditionally way of making sparkling wines, have turned this house into a fantastic option for those who want a Grande Marque standard non-Vintage sparkling wine at the fraction of the price.

Bordeaux

20 cases Chateau La Fleur Bellevue 2019 Blaye £114.00 per case 12/1 £9.50 per bottle inc vat
 With its rich Merlot and structured Cabernet Sauvignon, this wine is open, rich with generous tannins. Black-plum flavours give ripeness to the spicy, full-bodied wine that has good potential.
 This wine comes from the oldest wine region in Bordeaux, just across the river from famous estates on the Left Bank. Overlooking the Gironde Estuary, this amphitheatre of vines forms the La Rose Bellevue vineyard. It is located on the highest point of Saint Palais and its protected rows of vines are grown in mixed soils of fine gravel, sand, and silt. The wine is a very elegant blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Sauvignon. The palate is lush with flavours of black currant and black cherry.

The palate is medium bodied with fine tannin, quite spicy compared to its peers, then it reins everything back in for what a refined finish is. Classy stuff. Tasted at the Cru Bourgeois tasting in London. Drink 2021 onwards. 91/100 Neil Martin
This solid estate has produced a classic 2016 Château Beaumont with juicy cherry fruits, leafy herbs, and saddle leather notes in its balanced, medium-bodied, straight-up delicious profile. It's ideal for drinking over the coming 5-7 years.

30 cases Chateau Ramafort 2010 £204.00 per case 12/1 £17.00 per bottle inc vat.
This excellent Cru Bourgeois Chateau, formerly owned by Chateau Lafite Rothschild, only releases the wines from its fairy-tale 17th century cellars, the largest in the Medoc (known locally as the Cathedral), when they judge the wines are perfect for drinking.
"A corking Cru Bourgeois Medoc from a 10/10 vintage". - Jonathan Ray, The Spectator
The 2010 is perfect for drinking now and will be for the next 5 years, coming direct from their cellars
A blend of 50% merlot and 50% cabernet sauvignon. Dense deep red colour in the glass. The nose is full of smooth and rich red berries and black fruit - cherry, blueberry, and blackberries. The palette is wonderful with a full-body and weight to it, while incorporating gorgeous, softened tannins after time in bottle. The style is clean with structure and a classic Medoc feel to it. There are very subtle chocolate and toasty toffee notes from the oak along with a gorgeous lengthy finish. Allow 20-30 minutes in a decanter before drinking. (January arrival)

6 cases Chateau La Fleur Pourret 2014 St Emilion £342.00 per case 12/1 £28.50 per bottle inc vat
Grand Cru.
Château La Fleur Pourret belongs to the owners of Château Figeac, and they've even got the same winemaker, Frederic Faye on board. As a result, this Saint-Émilion Grand Cru punches well above its weight. It's made from 40-year-old vines on a 4.5-hectare estate a stone's throw from the gate of Saint-Émilion. It's deep and concentrated, with notes of plum, blackcurrant, spice, cedar, and tobacco. The 2014 vintage is a vastly underrated vintage that saw many excellent wines produced.

Note from the Chateau-

Vintage 2011, blind tasting event leading wine journalist Neal Martin asked us in December 2022 to send him at the beginning of the year a bottle of Château Branas Grand Poujeaux 2011 for an article on Bordeaux "ten years in the bottle". When my friend Olivier told me that he is going to a serious 2011 tasting, I asked him to put Branas on the list in order to get some perspective before sending the bottle off to the UK, where Neal Martin of Vinous is based.

Such a pleasant surprise when Olivier sent me the message and his FB posting that Branas was unanimously number 1 / preferred wine.

Still not too many people know that the Grand Poujeaux plateau in Moulis is in fact a first growth terroir. On this plateau with gravel sediments from the Gunz period, Château Branas Grand Poujeaux has all its vineyard blocks of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit-Verdot vines.

This is one of the most famous names in Bordeaux and is renowned for making classic, structured claret that is true to the St Estèphe style. Perfect for current drinking.

James Suckling, the famous American wine critic, has just re-tasted the 1995 vintage of this wine and awarded it 97 points, saying that it has "...such purity and power yet it's reserved and beautiful." He goes on to say that it is "...one of the best Calon Segur s ever."

"I always loved this wine from the first time I tasted it in 1998. It has such purity and power, yet it's reserved and beautiful. It's one of the best Calon's ever. I drank a bottle with some friends in Manhattan last week and it was the wine of the evening. It was full-bodied with silky tannins and a focused and intense finish. Lots of currant and berry character and hints of dried spices. It's finally opening and giving real pleasure now like so many 1995 Bordeaux are now." 97/100 Score, James Suckling May 2015)

This beautiful 2003 exhibits a dense ruby/purple colour, a vigorous youthfulness, and plenty of mulberry, black currant and cherry fruit intermixed with notions of cedarwood, baking spices and roasted herbs. Ripe, medium to full-bodied, fresh, and precise, this wine is just hitting full maturity where it should remain for another 10-15 years. 93/100 Robert Parker

2 cases Chateau Calon Segur 2006 Magnums £1775.00 per case 6 mags £295.70 per mag inc vat

Ex-chateau stock

The 2006 Calon Segur was current winemaker Vincent Millet's first vintage. In many ways, you can see it as one of the last of the "old style" Calon Segur wines with a higher percentage of Merlot than nowadays (the 2006 consists of 33% Merlot), while I aver that the tannins are not as fine as they are nowadays. The Merlot component is vividly expressed on the nose with ravishing ripe red cherries, kirsch, and strawberry, just slightly smudged by the alcohol. The palate is medium-bodied with chewy tannin, quite sexy in style but it does not have the class of more recent vintages and it seems to have remained tough up on the finish. It will loosen up with time, so afford these another 6-8 years in bottle. Tasted January 2016.

The 2016 Beaune 1er Cru Les Boucherottes has a subtle bouquet that comes across more introspective than the 2016 Beaune Clos des Couchereaux, the fruit darker but equally well defined.  Another through the roof value is the 2022 IGP Pays d'Oc Marius Grenache Syrah, with is a 60/40 mix of Syrah and Grenache that was brought up all in concrete tank, with no influence of oak whatsoever. This drink way past its humble price point and will dish out tons of pleasure for at least 2-3 years.

 The hidden, reasonably priced gem in the Chapoutier line-up is the companies consistently fine Rasteau. The 2020 Rasteau is a blend of 50% Grenache, 40% Syrah and 10% Mourvèdre, aged in concrete. While blackberries and blueberries mingle on the note, this is full bodied, richly tannic, and concentrated. Drink it over the next 3-4 years with hearty dishes.

10 cases Crozes Hermitage 2022 Les Meysonniers Chapoutier £22.00 per bottle £264.00 case inc vat
 The promising 2022 Crozes Hermitage delivers a pannier of plush, juicy blueberries, balanced by just enough soft tannins to keep it savoury and focused. Full-bodied and rounded in the mouth, it finishes silky and long. This looks to be a beauty to drink over the next 6-7 years.

5 cases Gigondas Les Jocasses 2020 Chapoutier £24.00 per bottle £288.00 case inc vat
 The nose is powerful and shows great finesse. The alternation of strawberry jam aromas and spicy/peppery notes creates a very pleasant bouquet. Floral then spicy (pepper) notes on entry. The wine displays a superb tannic structure and lovely long-lingering flavours.

5 cases St Joseph Les Granilites 2021 Chapoutier £30.50 per bottle £366.00 case inc vat
 The Saint-Joseph Les Granilites is part of Chapoutier's Prestige collection, a range of classic Grand Crus that reflect the true essence of their respective Rhône Valley appellations. Made from 100% Syrah Les Granilites Saint-Joseph is a certified organic red wine that offers a nice intensity of wild dark berry aromas (blackcurrant, blackberries), mineral notes (graphite), underscored by a lovely, smooth oakiness. The palate is soft and well-balanced with fine, tight tannins, beautiful mineral tautness derived from the granite and a long-lasting finish with lovely dark berry notes. Buy

5 cases Chateau Neuf du Pape 2019 Bio Collection Chapoutier £33.00 per bottle £396.00 case inc vat
 Luscious and jammy red, full-bodied that shows ripe berry notes and pronounced jammy flavours. The palate is discerning with more notes of cherry jam, wild berry and dark plum. Ripe tannins on the finish.

5 cases Cote Rotie Brune et Blonde 2018 Guigal £55.00 per bottle £330.00 case 6/1 inc vat
Hints of almond paste and vanilla accent red cherries and raspberries on the nose of the 2017 Cote Rotie Brune et Blonde. It's medium-bodied, crisp, and crunchy yet finishes ripe and silky. It's another classic vintage that should drink well young yet be capable of up to a decade of cellaring. 90-92/100 RP

5 cases Hermitage 2017 Guigal £55.00 per bottle £330.00 case 6/1 inc vat
Marked by scents of cracked pepper and ripe cherries, the 2017 Crozes Hermitage is more concentrated and textured than the 2016. Medium to full-bodied, it finishes velvety, with hints of raspberries and liquorice. 91/100 RP

3 cases Vieux Telegraph 2011 CNDP £75.00 per bottle £900.00 case 12/1 inc vat
Showing beautifully on this occasion, the 2011 Chateau Neuf du Pape reveals a bit of bricking, with hallmark notes of iodine, sweet red cherries, and a delicate touch of fine leather. Medium to full-bodied and bolstered by soft tannins, it finishes long, with notes of salted liquorice. I wouldn't plan on holding it much longer, but it should please those looking for a mature bottle over the next few years.

Northern Rhone Red

2 cases Chapoutier Hermitage Ermitage 2014 £1395.00 per 6 inc vat 97/100 WA Jeb Dunnock
2 cases Chapoutier Hermitage Pavillon 2019 £1395.00 per 6 inc vat 98+/100 Parker

Massively concentrated and tannic, Chapoutier's 2019 Ermitage le Pavillon looks as if it will take a few more years to come around than the other selections parcelaires. The initial scents of crushed stone and cassis are intriguing, but this full-bodied wine comes across almost cold and reserved yet immensely promising. On this occasion, Michel Chapoutier pronounced it "a tea of granite," which describes it well, although hints of its future charms can be seen on the long, liquorice-tinged, and mouthwatering finish.

The 2007 La Mission Haut Brion should be considered as one of the wines of the vintage, perhaps even outclassing the gaff across the road! It has an ebullient bouquet with vivid dark berry, cold, warm gravel and undergrowth scents that are very complex and beautifully defined. The palate is medium bodied with very fine tannin, crisp acidity, and a very precise structure, with superb tension on the finish. If you are seeking a 2007 Bordeaux, then this would undoubtedly be one of my picks. Buy.

Sauternes

3 cases Chateau Rieussec 2010 (Strong buy) £330.00 per 6 bottles £55.00 per bottle inc vat

The 2010 Rieussec now in bottle it has become a contender for the finest Sauternes of the vintage. It is blessed with a pure and lifted bouquet with ripe peach, nectarine and honey, hints of shaved ginger poke their head above the surface with aeration. It is very subtle. The palate is medium bodied with fine tannins, perfectly judged acidity, and convincing harmony. This is a sophisticated Sauternes with superb minerality and outstanding persistency. I will confess that I pinned this as "Yquem" and was both shocked and pleased when its identity was revealed. Go buy. 96/100 Wine Advocate. Drink now-2035.

Composed of 94% Semillon, 3% Sauvignon Blanc and 3% Muscadelle, the pale lemon-gold coloured 2017 Carmes de Rieussec comes bounding out of the glass with rambunctious scents of candied citrus peel, pineapple tart, green mango, and fresh apricots with hints of honeycomb, musk perfume and lime blossoms. The medium to full-bodied palate explodes with tropical and stone fruit flavours, offering seamless freshness and a long, honey-laced finish. Yum! 91/100 Robert Parker

Tasting notes.

A wine that slowly unfurls to offer fragrant orange blossoms, honeycomb, candied ginger scents with a core of lemon marmalade, also a hint of preserved citrus peel. The palate is light on its feet with zippy freshness lifting this well-knit sweetness, beautifully marbled with bright, vivacious citrus fruit and spice flavours, it finishes with long length and great depth.

The new 50-Year-Old Tawny Port is a field blend bottled with a bar-top cork in 2022 and with 158 grams of residual sugar. Mature, with dark chocolate nuances, this is rich, deep, and sensationally delicious. The concentration is exceptional too. Then, there's the long, long finish, filled with fruit and sugar. It is irresistible, in addition to being nuanced and complex. It's young enough so that it is never just a curiosity. The fruit is certainly not cracking. 97 pts Wine Advocate

Sherry

Manzanilla La Gitana En Rama bottling Hidalgo 2023 15% £108.00 per 6 bottles inc vat £18.00 per bottle.

Produced from 100% Palomino grapes grown on white albariza soils at Hidalgo's highest quality vineyards of Balbaina and Miraflores, La Gitana Manzanilla En Rama is sherry at its very best - unfiltered and only lightly filtered free-run juice which has spent eight years in the solera. This Spring 2022 release is available in limited quantities (only 35 barrels of the solera are used) and can be considered the best value sherry in the world.

Notes

Intense, complex, and balanced on the nose, this En Rama is a crisp, citrusy, and salty wine, influenced by the proximity of the cellars in Sanlucar de Barrameda to the sea (only 300m away) as well as the altitude of the Balbaina vineyard (110m). Matured using the traditional 'Criaderas y Solera' process in American oak casks, under a layer of floor integrated by the yeasts.
