Hear that? It's the clickety-clack of clogs making their way to the top of your summer footwear wish list. Spurred on by a more casual approach to fashion, the divisive style has been experiencing a renaissance of late. (Case in point: The casual footwear brand Crocs recorded record revenue in 2022.) A modern take on the wooden klompen Dutch farmers wore in the 13th century, this season's chunky slip-ons come in a variety of vibrant hues, with soles made from wood, cork, rubber and foam. Whatever your go-to summer outfit, we've rounded up a few of our favourites below.
