FIVE MILE

Welcome to Wonder Earth

The Earth has so much to share if only we stop, listen and wonder...

Starting with the sun that gives us and all living things life, to the patterns, feelings, stories and relationships that we share with other natural things.

Let's explore what it means to belong to our Earth Home

Wonder Earth celebrates both the poetry and science of our Earth home, inspiring awe for the place that sustains and protects us and that needs our protection.

A note from the authors

Often, when we learn about the Earth, we learn scientific facts, read complex graphs and study diagrams. But this learning style means we only listen to half Earth's story. It is by listening to and noticing Earth's poetry - its vibrant, wondrous song - we deepen our respect and love for Earth. We become more connected with Earth. This connection is more important than ever, and will help us all play a part in protecting our planet.

A key Earth science is ecology, and 'eco' means 'home' from the ancient greek word 'oikos'. Remembering that Earth is our home is an encouraging starting point for moving forward.

Celebrating Earth's poetry, its true wonderfulness, its whole story is what this book is all about.

Welcome to your Earth home. Happy exploring,

Zanni and Tiff

Meet The Creators

Written by bestselling children's author Zanni Louise, and environmental educator Tiff Holborn.

Zanni grew up on a little farm in country New South Wales, and has spent most days since seeking the shade of trees, and the sound of bird calls. These days, Zanni writes books in her garden, inspired by the natural world around her.

Zanni wanted to make a book with her friend Tiff that helped kids feel connected with their Earth home, but also empowered to look after it and protect it.

Tiff is a school-garden teacher and, with a Masters in Environmental Education, has been teaching ecological and sustainability education for nearly 15 years.

Tiff first fell in love with the Earth as a young girl spending summers on canoe-trips in the vast Canadian wilderness, and continues to grow her reverence and admiration for wild beauty through the eyes of her children.

The stunning illustrations by Sophy Louise Smith highlight the interconnectedness of human and nature, built and natural, and celebrate the colour, patterns, and visual rhythms of the natural world.

Sophy is a freelance illustrator based in rainy Glasgow, who creates bright and lively illustrations celebrating the beauty of nature and all the creatures within it.

Wonder Earth

Written by Zanni Louise & Tiff Holborn | Illustrated by Sophy Louise Smith
 Hardback

- A picture book that combines learning facts about the earth while appreciating the beauty and poetry of the world around us. Celebrating Earth's poetry, its true wonderfulness, its whole story is what this book is all about.
- Written by two people that have a deep love and appreciation for the world around them, Zanni and Tiff are not only incredible writers but also come to this book armed with knowledge as Tiff is an environmental educator.
- The illustrations show interconnectedness of human and nature, built and natural, and celebrate the colour, patterns, and visual rhythms of the natural world.

If we saw ourselves as belonging to the Earth rather than standing apart from it, what would Earth look like? A wonder-filled place? A place we want to protect now and forever?

Welcome to Wonder Earth. The Earth has so much to share if only we stop, listen and wonder. Starting with the sun that gives us and all living things life, to the patterns, feelings, stories and relationships that we share with other natural things. Let's explore what it means to belong to our Earth home.

HUMAN•KIND

A LITTLE GOOD IN A BIG WORLD ...

Human Kind : Resilience

Written by Zanni Louise | Illustrated by Missy Turner

Picture book

- Goes beyond EI (emotional intelligence) to explore VI (values intelligence)
- Encourages a 'more than me' view of the world, celebrating community values as the binding agent of relationships
- Is written with warmth, charm and simplicity, and through a cast of characters explores children's everyday experiences and identifies the important role values play in good decision making
- Each book includes supporting notes for parents and carers to extend the discussion of values at home or in classrooms
- Upcoming titles in the series: Resilience, Imagination, Self-belief, Friendship and Teamwork

Resilience is bouncing back from difficult moments. Resilience is reaching out for help when things feel too big to handle. Resilience is recognising how you feel and knowing what to do with that feeling. You are often more resilient than you realise. Resilience is something you can learn, and something you can grow over time. There are many ways to be resilient ...

Human Kind teaches the importance of a little good in a big world...
