Up close

"... Solo bass players have nowhere to hide; the connections are all direct - with the instrument - the musical idea - the listener, while the dialogue between bass clarinet, tenor sax and bass expands the range of possibilities into an intricate dance. Still, the immediacy of the performance must be mirrored by the recording technique - pure, articulate - with startling dynamic impact.

This superlative record creates a connection with those individuals making the music, communicating an emotional landscape that is palpably within reach."
