TOIS is about creating an open and communicative atmosphere. The music isn't narrowed down to style - it's coming from different places, it's going to different places, always reaching for intimacy.....

"On the surface are the influences of Miles Davis and Art Blakey, but looking further the complexity of a written score with the fluidity of classic jazz is pure Gil Evans. These cats know where they're going. Each line is filled with detail... no off-course riffing that changes the musical direction, only contextual spicing within the phrase.

You're sitting up front, a small combo fills the smoky bandstand, reminding you of those big Harlem clubs - a subtle decadence in the air behind the sublime clarity of the sound."
