

Rothco Camo BDU Shirt

Rothco's Camo BDU Shirts are designed for tactical use with undeniable comfort and unbeatable durability. A concealed placket on the button up shirt covers the front buttons to help retain warmth. The tactical shirt features adjustable button-tab wrist cuffs to help you find the perfect fit. The military shirt is made from a rugged and reliable cotton blend with double stitched seams that are built to withstand tactical wear-and-tear. Reinforced elbows on the military tactical shirt provide both additional protection and enhanced durability. Four pleated front cargo pockets are secured with button closures for storing EDC (everyday carry) items, and the left chest pocket features an open-top pocket for easy access. These shirts are modeled after the U.S. military's standard issue battle dress uniform (BDU).
