

Rothco Concealed Carry MA-1 Flight Jacket

Discreetly carry your most valuable items in Rothco's Concealed Carry MA-1 Flight Jacket. We've combined the classic military bomber style jacket with padded concealment pockets (on both the left and right side of jacket) and four mag pouches. The concealed carry pockets have hook and loop closures to ensure comfort and proper concealment. These pockets measure 7.75" X 10.5" and can easily fit a handgun. In addition to the concealed carry pockets and mag pouches, the MA-1 Jacket has two inside slash pockets with snap closure, two front slash pockets with flap and snap closure and a zippered utility pocket located on the left sleeve. In line with the classic military-style, Rothco's Concealed Carry Flight Jacket features 100% nylon water repellent outer shell, reversible orange lining, and poly fiberfill for warmth. Brass zippers and an extra full cut design complete the jacket. Not only can you conceal firearms but the MA-1 Concealed Carry Flight Jacket can securely carry expensive tech devices, important documents and more.
