

Rothco Deluxe EMT (Emergency Medical Technician) Paramedic Pants

Emergency medical technicians (EMTs) are trained to respond to any emergency as quickly as possible and cannot afford to be distracted by discomfort. Rothco's Deluxe EMT Pants are built for comfort and utility with an enhanced waistband that increases the first responder's range of motion and multiple pockets for essential EMS gear. Assembled with a blend of cotton and polyester, Rothco's paramedic pants offer unparalleled resiliency to withstand wear and tear. The enhanced waistband on the EMS pants are designed to provide a comfortable fit, an increase in mobility, and aid in keeping your shirt neatly tucked in. The EMT pants feature over eight pockets, including two large cargo pockets with scissor pockets on the front and a hidden zipper pocket behind, to store and carry all your lifesaving essentials. In the event you have to work on your knees, the pants include reinforced fields at the knees. Rothco's Deluxe Cargo Pants are great for EMTs, paramedics, and other first responder personnel.
