

Rothco Deluxe Modular Duty Belt Rig

Rothco's Deluxe Duty Belt Rig is a completed modular pouch system for public safety and law enforcement professionals, featuring a baton holder, handcuff case, radio pouch, and other modular gear. The deluxe triple retention buckle belt can securely fasten to an inner duty belt with the interior hook field and the four enhanced snap button belt keepers. Seven modular pouches are featured with the police duty belt, which includes a silent key holder, handcuff case, a pepper spray holder that can fit most small canisters (item #20010), a heavy-duty latex glove pouch, mini Maglite holder, a universal radio pouch, and a baton holder. Each attachable and removable module is molded with enhanced ballistic material and made of long-lasting denier polyester. This utility belt is ideal for police officers, security guards, and other law enforcement personnel.
