

Rothco Flightsuits

Take off and emulate classic Air Force style with Rothco's Flightsuits. Four strategically placed zipper closure slash pockets, numerous leg pockets with zipper closure (one with snap) and a zippered utility pocket with pen holder provide ample storage space. Three loop fields on this aviation suit allow for customization through adding flag, or morale patches, while the left chest showcases a hook and loop name badge holder, while a 2-way front zipper closure helps fastens your suit shut and remove efficiently. The adjustable waist and wrist cuff tabs with hook and loop closure on this pilot flight suit help to maintain the perfect fit. This tactical jumpsuit is constructed with a cotton/poly material for a winning combination of comfort and durability, and the aviation suit's underarm holes or vents allow for increased breathability. This military flightsuit features a collar, keeping with the standard and recognizable flight suit appearance while, reinforced shoulders on this coverall prevent wear. Pleated leg zippers are incorporated onto the front-bottom of this flying suit's pant leg.
