

Rothco Kids Flightsuit

Rothco Kids Air Force Type Flightsuits are the perfect costume for your future aviator! Four zippered slash pockets, numerous leg pockets with zipper closure (one with snap) and a zippered utility pocket provide tons of space for your little one to carry all their gear. Three loop fields allow for personalization through adding flag, or morale patches, while the left chest showcases a hook and loop name badge holder to attach a name tag. A 2-way front zipper closure helps to fastens their flight suit shut while adjustable waist and wrist cuff tabs with hook and loop closure on this pilot costume help to maintain the perfect fit. This kids flight suit designed with a cotton/poly material for a winning combination of comfort and durability to withstand any adventure. This children's aviation suit includes underarm holes or vents for increased breathability while playing. Our military inspired flightsuit features a collar, keeping with the recognizable flight suit appearance and reinforced shoulders on this children's coverall prevent wear. Pleated leg zippers are incorporated onto the front-bottom of this kids flying suit's pant leg to zip over or under boots. The Rothco kids military flight suit coveralls are great for Halloween, paintball and costumes.
