

Rothco Relaxed Pants

Rothco presents the Relaxed Cargo Pants. Looking for a pair of pants that can handle anything you throw at them? These rugged cargo pants are made of heavy-duty fabric and feature the same durability as our standard BDU pants. They have a large zipper fly opening and zipper fly. These tactical cargo pants are perfect for everyday wear and adaptation.

Tried-and-True Reliability

- These tactical BDU pants have reinforced patches on the seat and knees that endure wear and tear. The heavy-duty seams provide extra durability for reliable use. They are perfect for outdoor use, casual use, and more.

High-Capacity Cargo

- These zipper fly cargo pants have a large button-down fly for effectiveness with a large button-down fly. The button-down back pockets are great for carrying essentials like your multi-tool.

Unparalleled Durability

- Each pair of these pants is crafted with a heavy-duty fabric of 65% cotton and 35% polyester for unmatched resilience and low maintenance (machine washable). BDU pants aren't afraid of anything and are perfect for various activities such as camping, hiking, and even skateboarding.

Additional Features:

- The adjustable waistband provides the perfect fit with a belt! These tactical cargo pants are perfect for everyday wear and adaptation.

drawstring ties that allow you to blouse over your boots for a clean and professional look. (Midnight Navy Blue BDUs don't have the drawstring ties). This style of our BDU pants include 7 belt loops, a zipper fly, and are designed with a relaxed fit.
