

Smith & Wesson Military Watch Set

The Smith & Wesson Military Watch Set is the most stylish and sturdy watch for those in the military or law enforcement sector, or anyone seeking an adventure, sport, or any daily rugged outdoor activity. This watch set includes 3 interchangeable heavy duty canvas watch bands in olive drab, black and khaki, helping to maintain a professional look matching your uniform. The military watch set features a round face with black backing containing the well-respected Smith & Wesson name and logo. Additionally, the Smith & Wesson watch face includes 3 luminous hands showing the hours, minutes and seconds, as well as a date display, to keep you on time. The back of this military watch is designed with durable stainless steel while a hardened mineral glass crystal protects the dial. This time piece assembled with precision quartz Japanese movement and a long-lasting silver oxide battery. The multi band watch is also water-resistant up to 30 meters, a necessity for adventurers or those on the job.
