

Rothco WWII Style Leather Pilot Helmet

Fly back in time with Rothco's Vintage WWII Style Pilot Helmet. This replica of the classic WWII Type-B pilot helmet has adjustable leather straps on the chin, forehead, and back of the neck to ensure a perfect fit. Covered ear vents with zippers make this historic helmet a remarkable reproduction of the timeless WWII aviation gear designed to hold earphones and accommodate oxygen masks and goggles. The goatskin leather outershell creates an authentic look and feel, making this helmet great for Halloween costumes, war reenactments, and more.
