In the tax filing season, many people go ahead and buy insurance policies just to save some tax. And it is only after a couple of years that they realise that the policy is too expensive to maintain. Worse still, there are situations when you realise that a market-linked product is giving extremely low returns vis a vis your equity fund, simply because of the high costs.

Many financial planners would advise you to immediately exit such policies and invest the premium in equity funds. Yes, in some cases, there would be a loss. But it's better cut your losses sometimes than to ...

Dear Reader,

Business Standard has always strived hard to provide up-to-date information and commentary on developments that are of interest to you and have wider political and economic implications for the country and the world. Your encouragement and constant feedback on how to improve our offering have only made our resolve and commitment to these ideals stronger. Even during these difficult times arising out of Covid-19, we continue to remain committed to keeping you informed and updated with credible news, authoritative views and incisive commentary on topical issues of relevance.

We, however, have a request.

As we battle the economic impact of the pandemic, we need your support even more, so that we can continue to offer you more quality content. Our subscription model has seen an encouraging response from many of you, who have subscribed to our online content. More subscription to our online content can only help us achieve the goals of offering you even better and more relevant content. We believe in free, fair and credible journalism. Your support through more subscriptions can help us practise the journalism to which we are committed.

Support quality journalism and subscribe to Business Standard.
