

TAZZA BRANDS

Hi There!

Tazza Brands is a purpose driven high quality manufacturer of wet wipes and high quality consumer products focused on proactive innovation and cost savings. We are made in America and in high quality FDA/EPA facilities overseas for the ultimate, well diversified, low cost supply chain.

About Us

- We are the Wet Wipes and Cleaning Liquid experts, led by a global team experienced in technical product development, quality, sourcing, innovation, consumer insights and sales.
- We pride ourselves in rolling up our sleeves to innovate new products and big savings for our partners, through data and wet wipes product development expertise.
- We have the capacity to deliver extreme high volume commodities such as baby wipes at money saving competitive prices, while also being agile enough to be your quick solution to capitalize on a missing product from your portfolio.

Our Clients

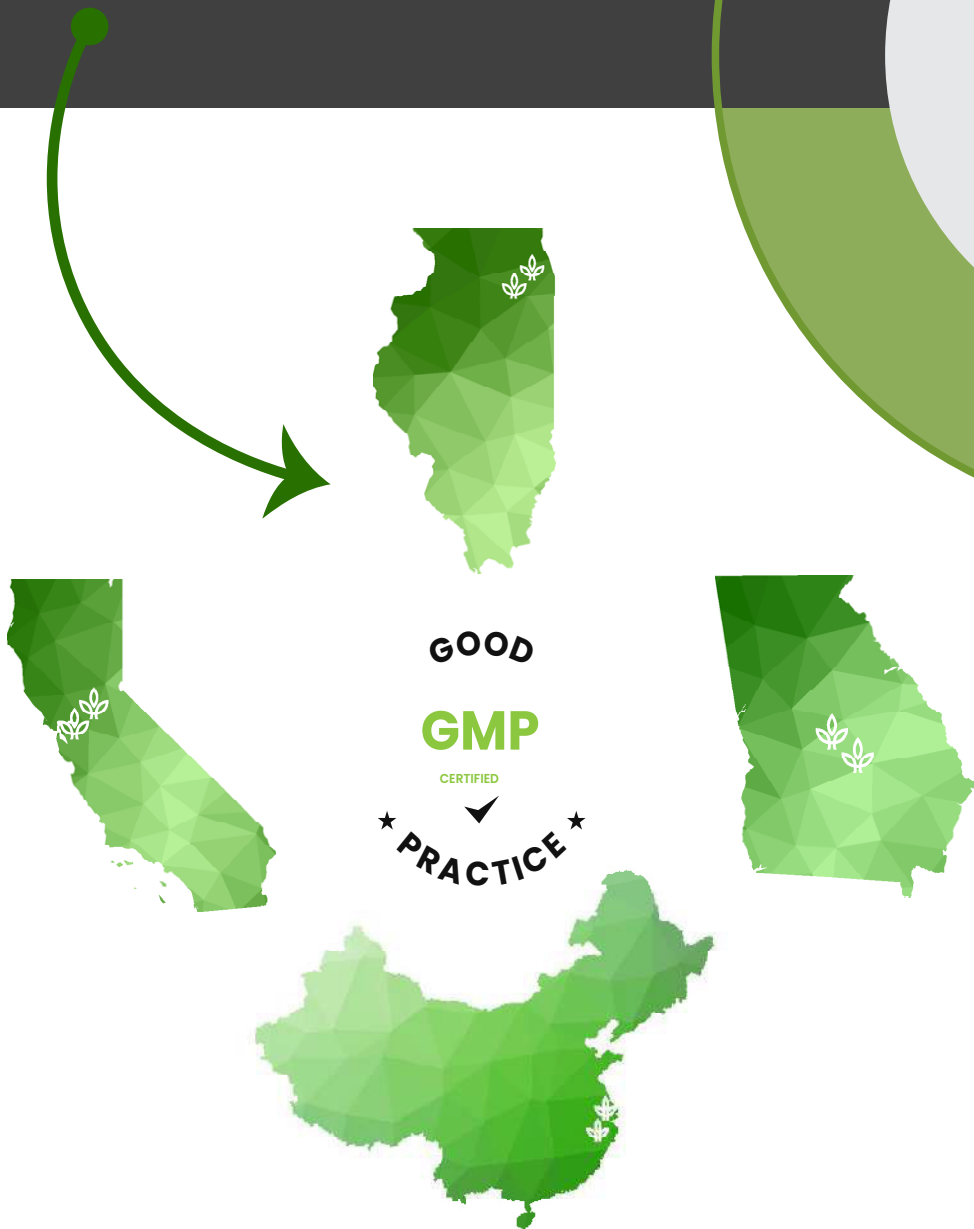

You can find us here:

Our Facilities & Team

More than 1.5 Million square feet of GMP manufacturing space + distribution/warehouses globally with offices in Chicago, Atlanta, Sacramento and Asia.

Our team is here to help bring your products to market as quickly as possible. It starts with our consultative process and ends with shipping or distributing your products. We have experienced, capable professionals to assist you with the entire process.

We also provide access to a global sourcing and procurement team that can source ancillary items to your product lines and ensure that our supply chains are diverse and protected.

Working with Us

IDEA

Bring us your wildest ideas (or simple too!) and we will quickly show you a path to commercialize them along with the pros/cons of different packaging options

CONCEPTION

From our initial consultation and intake, we will transform your ideas into options, along with our data driven recommendations.

SAMPLES

After understanding your preferences, we'll deliver baseline samples for your review and approval.

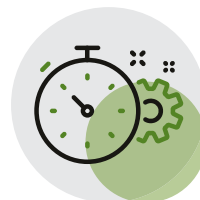

LABEL DESIGN & PACKAGING

We can work with existing packaging, or bring new ideas to life. We will maximize efficiency of packaging, logistics and supply chain through our data based approach.

WAREHOUSING

By leveraging our strategic locations around the nation, we'll minimize logistics cost to maximize savings to you.

FINAL PROPOSAL

Once everything is approved, we will deliver against our stated timelines.

REGULATORY

We provide regulatory support dependent on the product category to ensure your product is compliant and adheres to the regulating agency standards.

PRODUCTION SAMPLES & START

Pre-Production samples are given to you to approve. Congratulations! You have successfully brought a well thought out, amazing product to market.

Tazza Brands Capabilities

We produce a comprehensive range of personal care and hard surface cleaning wipes in various counts and packaging formats to meet your consumer's needs. Our cleaning liquids, powders and ancillary goods are designed to be NBE and meet your performance requirements.

Our Customer Pledge

We pledge to be the experts in wipes and household cleaning products. We do so by always continuing our education, maintaining membership, and following leading organizations such as INDA, EDANA, and the CBA. We also leverage data and shopper trends from places like IRI, Nielsen, Trendhunter, Supermarket news, google trends, and progressive grocer when it comes to developing products for our end-users and customers.

We pledge to be able to provide socially responsible, sustainable products and initiatives to our customers. We do this by offering solutions that encompass the following: Carbon footprint offsetting, leaping bunny certifications, smarter more sustainable options and having a robust social responsibility policy. We do not just make better products we want the world to be a better place because of the products we manufacture.

Our Quality Pledge

We pledge to put a QC touchpoint checklist around every project we are awarded. Whether it be our 100th time manufacturing a product or our first. Each product will be reviewed by our quality team and evaluated to ensure that at every step in the manufacturing process we are evaluating and documenting the quality of the product.

Finally, we pledge ultimate satisfaction. We know without your customers being satisfied with the product you will not be satisfied. We want the best for them, so we give you our best every day we come to work. Anyone can get someone to try something once but when you partner with us, we put all of our efforts into ensuring you are getting re-orders and your customers take notice and give you loyalty to your product or brand. We pledge to you that we will always be thankful for your business and ensure you are satisfied with our results.

The conversation starts with your consumer and ends with how we can help you deliver a product they will purchase time and time again
