

ANDREW MARTIN

Moon Landing

Neon Artwork

The words 'open till midnight' are illuminated in neon blue above a photographic image of the first man on the moon in this uber cool artwork. Printed onto an aluminum sheet and mounted onto board the artwork appears as if it's floating when hung against the wall. Radiating stand-out cool, this is a must-have for a modern living room, kitchen or games room, and will look uber cool contrasted with an older property.
