Marilyn Monroe neon artwork

Introduce some retro cool into your interiors with this playful landscape neon artwork depicting actress and icon Marilyn Monroe ready for an intergalactic journey through space illuminated by a circular red neon light. The iconic stars and stripes of the American flag are incorporated through the helmet and bold background. Mounted onto board for a striking three dimensional effect against the wall this image has been printed into aluminium for extra sheen. This big poster board style artwork adds playful humour and slick, urban cool to a room.
