Junk Art Propellar

Coffee Table

Unique propeller coffee table by Timothy Oulton

"Resurrected from the seas."

The distinctive Junk Art coffee table is handcrafted from the propellers of decommissioned Chinese fishing junks, topped with a simple pane of tempered glass. The reclaimed propeller, which once roared into life over the seas, lends its history and authenticity to these one of a kind pieces.

Special Note: A 4-leaf propeller is used in the round table. Style may vary slightly from piece to piece, due to the different dimensions and shape of each propeller.
