

VIANNEY HUNTER

THE MAKER

Gritty, intriguing and inherently grungy, Hunter Candles embodies everything founder, creator and maker Vianney Hunter is about. Her obsession with the graffiti-streaked streets and industrial back alleyways of Newtown underscores the creative ethos hand-poured into each and every candle.

“I find these streets contagious. They have this crazy energy, full of life and lust. Yet everything still feels so simple here, and everyone feels so connected.”

This interconnectedness to community is at the heart of Hunter Candles. When developing a new scent, Vianney combines nostalgic earthen tones and raw textures with inspiration drawn from the mentors, makers and memories that colour her world. Passionate about preserving the art of candle-making, each candle is brought to life with two bare hands - and promises to remain this way.

More than just a scent, Hunter Candles is a true olfactory experience. Sartorially-minded from the start, Vianney grew up surrounded by beautiful objects thanks to her mother's career as a photographer and interior designer. “I remember our house always being full of enormous candles. They were everywhere. Mum used to style them in and amongst a million plants and branches. When I look back at that now, I feel like Hunter Candles are a snapshot of those rooms.”

It's Vianney's honed eye for design and addition to beautiful aromas that combine to create a truly extraordinary approach to scent. A subversive, androgynous and effortlessly sexy approach that we know will have you just as addicted to Hunter Candles as we are..

22/23

An Inner West institution, Hunter Candles creates an olfactory experience that's clean, considered and unapologetically cool. From humble beginnings in a Newtown backyard to a light-filled industrial enclave on King Street, Hunter Candles remains a true embodiment of the creative energy and distinct community culture that courses through our art-filled streets. Every Hunter Candles blend is born from a moment in time, a memory, a muse - a scent undiscovered, yet somehow intoxicatingly familiar. Drawing inspiration from every corner of consciousness, the Hunter Candles collection is destined to inspire, surprise and excite. Whether you want to revitalise and reawaken the senses, soothe the soul or spark desire within, Hunter Candles serves evocative, down-to-earth scents that are utterly unique.

22/23 Range

Hunter Candles is perfect for those looking to make more mindful candle choices without compromising on aroma or aesthetic. We take conscious steps to minimise waste wherever possible, and meticulously select materials of the highest quality to create each of our candles.

Housed within your Hunter Candle, you'll find pure cotton wicks and hand-poured soy wax that's both biodegradable and pesticide free. You can burn your Hunter Candle with confidence knowing that our pure soy bean wax is also free from palm oil, petroleum and genetically modified materials (phew!).

OUR PRODUCTS

The robust aroma that unfurls from your Hunter Candle comes down to our exclusive use of full fragrance. Aptly named, full fragrance is free from any toxins, petrochemicals, phthalates and parabens - ensuring nothing nasty comes between you and your favourite candle burn.

Every component of your Hunter Candle is thoughtfully considered, including our signature packaging. We choose premium glassware renowned for its strength and lustre - glassware that you can't help but reuse. Once your final burn is complete, simply return to our studio with your empty Hunter Candle glassware to recycle or refill it with another pour in your preferred scent. All cardboard collateral we receive from suppliers is repurposed into our own Hunter Candles packaging, so you can feel good knowing that everything within your parcel has already been recycled and can be recycled again.

CULINARY RANGE

The Culinary Collection draws inspiration from – and explores in tantalising new ways – the deeply sensorial experience of dining.

Food, much like scent, has the power to transform, transport and unite. A nuanced flavour combination can transform even the simplest of meals. A nostalgic dish can transport even the most epicurean diner to a childhood memory. And nothing brings family, friends and future flames together quite like a table laden with plates to share.

It’s these collective culinary experiences that inspired us to explore taste through an olfactive lens. In every chapter of creator Vianney Hunter’s journey, food has played a pivotal role. From experiencing an eclectic variety of cuisines from a young age, to finding her kindred spirit in a chef; from the heart and soul of homegrown produce, to the creativity that comes alive in kitchens every night; every culinary moment – both ours and yours – serves as mouthwatering inspiration.

From the familiar smell of freshly baked bread, to sweetly herbaceous tomato, sparkling lemon and smoked spices, the Culinary Collection features four new scents to awaken your senses, whet your appetite and elevate every dining experience.

CULINARY RANGE N°1
BAKED BREAD

There are few experiences more mouthwatering than the first hints of freshly baked bread wafting through the air. As warm, familiar and comforting at its namesake suggests, No. 1 Baked Bread unfurls in folds of buttery soft and subtly sweet layers. Inspired by the simple – yet satisfying – pleasure of pulling apart a chunk of crusty home-style bread, No.1 serves as a reminder to savour those little moments of bliss whenever and wherever they’re served. And just like when we’re taking a seat at our favourite restaurant, this is one course we’ll never skip.

CULINARY RANGE N°2
TOMATO / FENNEL / BASIL

A tantalising blend of fresh sun-ripened tomato, aromatic green basil and bittersweet fennel dances across the palate and permeates the air. Whether you’re dining under or simply dreaming of sunny skies, No. 2 Tomato, Basil & Fennel captures the carefree confidence of this classic summer combination. The perfect accompaniment to alfresco soirees, this effervescent flavour profile embodies all the beauty of letting simple ingredients shine. Revel in the burst of joy No. 2 brings to each moment, and know that you’ll always be coming back for another taste.

CULINARY RANGE N°3
LEMON TREE

A sparkling cocktail of citrus and verdant leafy greens all but guarantees a deliciously good time. No. 3 Lemon Tree is a confident, invigorating blend of bright lemon leaf, zesty skin and the juicy pulp within. Akin to a kiss from the sun – or the bitter candied lemon skin on your mate’s signature drizzle cake – No. 3 pays homage to the joie de vivre of a balmy afternoon spent with good food and great company. Just as a squeeze of lemon instantly lifts any dish, No. 3 is set to inspire and delight – day and night.

CULINARY RANGE N°4
SMOKED HOT CHILLI

A sensory experience like no other, No. 4 Smoked Chilli is bold and unapologetic. Inspired by the fastidious artform of smoking food – from reverently stoking woodchips to faithfully guarding the flames – this spicy blend layers sweet charred capsicum and smoky paprika over the sharpness of whole chillies. Not for the faint of heart, but a delicious experience for those with a daring palate, No. 4 conjures the intoxicating headiness of low ‘n slow barbecue heat – sans the hard work.

22/23 Range

MOUNTAIN ASH N°1

CRUSHED BASIL / PEPPERED IVY / GREEN ASH

Mists float through the dramatic sheers peaks of our rich, bountiful mountains. Upon the breeze, southerly winds collect crushed greens from sunburnt branches. Zesty bergamot and peppered grasses evolve with fresh-cut oregano. Verdant ivy and earthy basil leaves are carried by majestic cedar, sun-dappled amber and leather-wrapped patchouli. Lost amongst the Green Ash tree, see the clouds tumble by. Eye's open.

SADDLE LEATHER N°2

MOWED HAY / SAFFRON / LEATHER

A man at dusk on the outback farm. Westerly winds capture polished saddle leather and brushed suede, enveloping the richness of soft orris root and scarlet saffron. Quiet pleasures of powdery tonka bean, touched by glowing white amber and subtle hints of freshly mown hay, evoke a day's end on a working landscape. Feet up.

ACACIA TREE N°3

HONEYED GREENS / TREE SAP / CORKWOOD

Tumbled branches under gleaming sunbeams, illuminating the acacias' fluffy golden flower.

Honeyed greens and soft corkwood intermingle with spicy cardamom and are tangled in white jasmine with tender lily. Glowing amber resin and enduring musk create a sensation of wandering through our bush at dawn, barefoot, dreaming with your hands on the trunks' of the red gum's, feeling her beating heart. Simply, a sweet kiss from our mighty bush land. Heart open.

TASMANIA CREEK N°4

EUCALYPTUS BARK / GRAPEFRUIT RIND / OLIVE LEAF

Under a canopy of paperbark eucalyptus, amongst leafy gullies, gather red cedar, resinous benzoin and mossy vetiver. Coupled with crisp grapefruit and bitter orange, they join the lively freshness of white peppercorn and olive leaf balanced by the sparkling minerals of a bubbling creek. Feels like you're dipping your toes into a Tasmanian waterfalls' edge. Breathe out.

GROUNDING COLLECTION

(Costings) RRP	$59.00	(Larger order for gifting or events?) Ask us about our smaller sized candles Available on request.
Wholesale 20+	$31.00

The Grounded Collection draws on a deep yearning to celebrate the unique and unifying moments marked by our country's natural surroundings—it's the ground we walk on, the ground that keeps us centred.

We've spent the past two years soaking up our memories of growing up in Australia, inspired by the raw beauty of every far-flung locale and the luxurious sensory signature they combine to create. With this in mind, each scent has been meticulously designed with the intention to draw you in, and make you really feel.

Experience a tranquil exhale whilst laying beside a trickling Tasmanian creek. Be completely engulfed in the cool green canopies nestled among our mountains. Inhale the rich tanned leather and dry hay dancing on the wind that breezes through an outback farm. Take solace in a trail walk, your nose enveloped in the aura of a nearby acacia tree. No matter your desired destination, the Grounded Collection is rich in scent and powerful in emotion.

THE TRAVELER

A companion for outdoor adventures. Or, for smaller spaces, like the sink! A slice of home for that special person, who may be away from Australia for a little while, and pining for that nostalgic feel. In a tidy matte black tin, he will sit quietly in your space, adding to the mood. We go as far as saying, it's the staple for any bag. Yes, we are that person who has candles in their bag, and have whipped them out for a dinner party, or to freshen up the partner's place. The Traveller last 15+ hours, and emits an ambient scent for your space.

(Costings) RRP	$17.00
Wholesale 20+	$11.50

THE REEDS

The Reeds is the perfect way to scent your space delicately, for months. Ten reeds stand in your vessel allowing the oils to climb up, and slowly disperse the scent. The Reeds last 4 months, and come in a calico bag, in a kraft box.

(Costings) RRP	$59.00
Wholesale 10+	$34.00

TOOLS

Hunter Tools are designed to enhance the life and quality of your Hunter Candles. No self-respecting candle enthusiast should find themselves without this sleek trio in their repertoire.

(Costings) RRP	$52.00
Wholesale 5+q	$33.00

THE HAZE

An atmospheric mist that can be used to scent any space. It could be used in your bedroom on your pillows, in the bathroom for guests, on your yoga mat, or even on your wrist! It's a perfect spritz to add the finishing touch to your meaningful life. Each Haze comes in a signature amber glass bottle, and has around 1,000 sprays.

(Costings) RRP	$25.00	(Available in) Angus, Australia, Deborah, Jessica, Morgan.
Wholesale 20-49 50+	$12.50 $10.00	Excludes GST and shipping costs, which will be calculated and agreed with the client before payment.
