Uncorked:

Try Something New!!

I find that most people find a particular varietal of wine they like and stick with it, often times one favorite brand. For the month of August I challenge all of you to step out of your comfort zone and try something new, one of my favorite summertime sippers, Viognier. It is a beautiful white wine varietal from the Languedoc region of France. Cinquante-Cinq is an amazing producer, that delivers a great Viognier for an even better price.

Cinquante-Cinq Viognier is a lush full bodied wine that is crisp and clean, featuring a nose of white flowers and stony minerality with a palate of citrus oil and peaches. The finish is clean with plenty of the minerality first detected on the nose with a touch of acidity. This wine is a perfect sipper all by itself and pairs well with light summer fare.

Spirit Corner:

Just a Cool Whiskey!

I know, most people don't think of whiskey as a summer spirit but who care, 287 Single Malt is such a cool whiskey I just have to tell you about it. To quote the distiller, "Beer is made from grain, whiskey is made from grain...what if we made whiskey from beer made by a brewery?" Let me tell you, they nailed it. 287 is distilled from Captain Lawrence Freschchester Pale Ale and it is a unique, delicious whiskey. 287 features floral and malted barley notes with hints of vanilla and just a touch of caramel. Enjoy on the straight, on the rocks or in your favorite whiskey cocktail, it really doesn't matter, just enjoy.
