Uncorked:

A Red for July?

Most people grab a nice bottle of white for the warm summer months, but what if you're in the mood for a red? One of my favorite reds for the summer is Nero D'Avola, and Ala Nera is an awesome one. The Ala Nera has a beautiful nose full of wild berries and baking spice. The aromas of clove and pepper carry over to the palate, which is bursting with fresh cherries and raspberries. This wine is fantastic with a slight chill and pairs well with all grilled meats, especially cervallata.

Spirit Corner:

Summer Gin

When the weather warms it's time to grab the gin, and Warwick rustic gin is my favorite to grab. Warwick distillery is nestled right here in the foothills of the northern Hudson valley. Their gin is distilled using the finest hand selected botanicals of juniper berries, citrus peel, coriander, angelica root and anise. Warwick gin has great balance of pine, citrus, floral and sweet notes, it is great in cocktails but the best is on the rocks with a couple of muddled cucumber slices.
