The wine experience you've been waiting for...

Uncorked:

Merlot is seeing a nice resurgence in California and Bonny Doon's I'm Not Drinking Any Merlot is an excellent bottle of wine at a great price. Bonny Doon likes to create great wines that are truly reflective of the terroir and this is no exception, since the release of the movie sideways Merlot has been shunned so when Randall Graham decided to dive into this taboo varietal he decided to make something special. The wine is a beautiful deep ruby color, with aromas of raspberry, licorice, gingerbread and a touch of herbs. The palate is lush and smooth, great fruit and complexity with nice acid and medium tannins, at $15.99 a true bargain. Bonny Doon Merlot pairs well with lamb, steak, grilled veggies and even pizza. Come on in on Friday March 9th from 4 P.M. - 7 P.M. to try this awesome wine.

Spirit Corner:

I love the New York State distillery boom that's been going on, some fantastic spirit's have been coming out, and one of my favorites is new age style gins. Warwick distillers from right here in the Hudson valley makes some fantastic spirits, from bourbon to cordials, but my favorite may be their gin. This fantastic spirit is distilled from select botanicals as well as lemon and lime peel, creating a smooth easy drinking gin that needs no mixers, balanced with the botanicals and citrus shining through. Well priced for a craft spirit, and will go down well in the long days of summer.
