Uncorked:

Rose Season Is Here

It's been cold and snowy but the new rose wines are in and we have some great ones. La Spinetta is my favorite, from Tuscany a full bodied, fresh and bright wine with hints of strawberry and raspberry, beautiful minerality thru the mid-palate and lively acidity on the finish. We have two great New York roses from Wolffer Estates, their estate rose and their Summer in a Bottle, one is better than the next. We also have Bieler from Provence, an absolute stunner at a great price point and Jaboulet from the Rhone valley, a true international favorite. We will be adding Miraval for you Brangelina fans and several more. Even though it doesn't feel like spring in the Hudson valley doesn't mean you shouldn't be drinking wine like it isn't.

Spirit Corner:

Buffalo Trace bourbon is in! From the most storied distillery in Kentucky comes a reasonably priced, delicious bourbon. This normal staple on back bars and liquor store shelves has been hard to come by these days due to its enormous popularity, good price point and great taste. Buffalo

Trace is a deep amber whiskey that has a complex aroma of vanilla, mint and molasses. Pleasantly sweet to the taste with notes of brown sugar and spice that give way to oak, toffee, dark fruit and anise.

This whiskey finishes long and smooth with serious depth. Come on in and get a bottle while it lasts, I only get 12 bottles a year.
