NOTES FROM THE BOOK CLUB

Inspired by long evenings drinking tea,
talking about the books we are reading.

By wanders through museums, bookshops,
and gardens in beautiful autumn tones,

By the objects we've found, and what makes us dream.

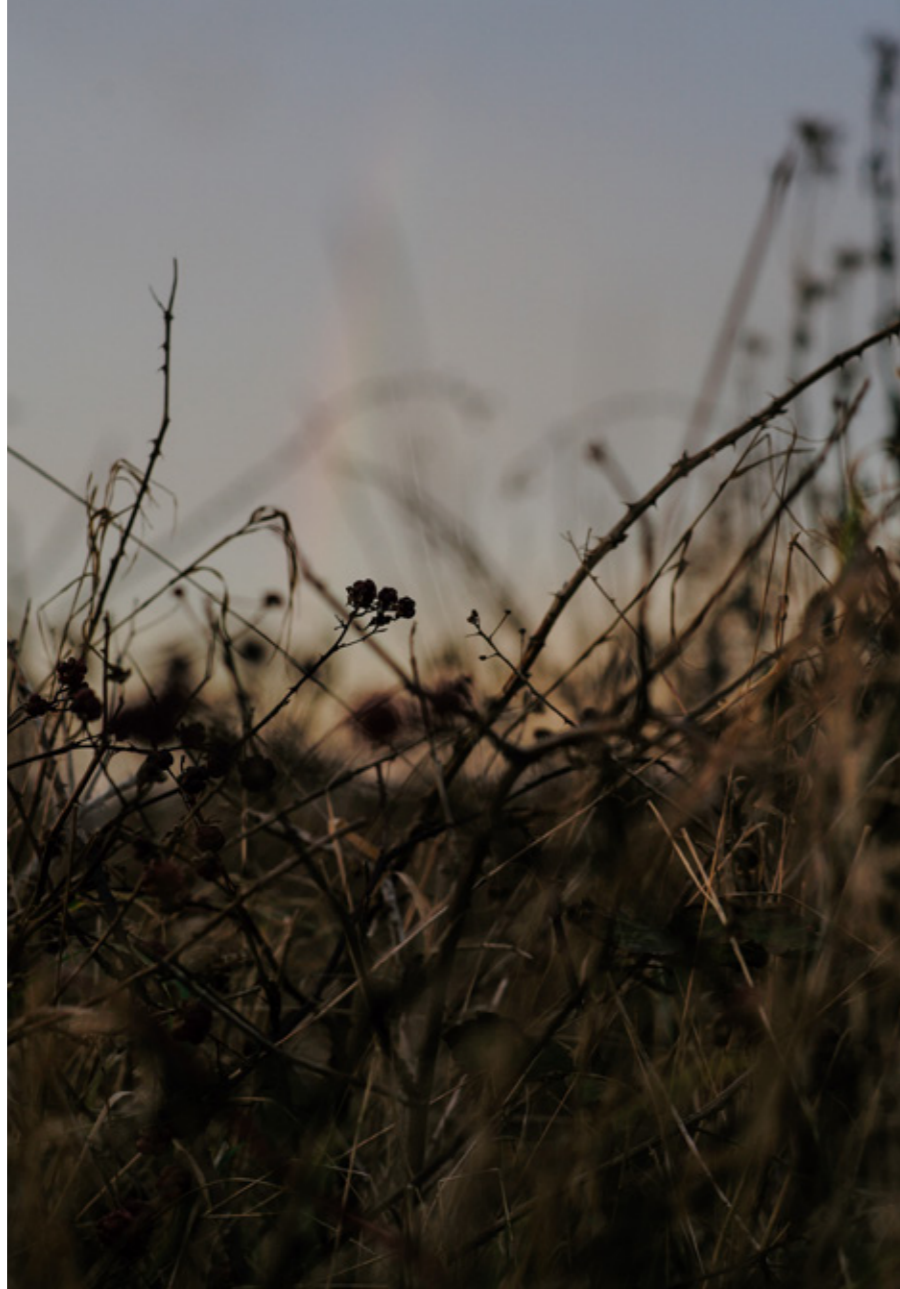

By the peace and presence of slowly brewing a good cup of tea,
nourishing mind and soul.

By the light of new encounters, togetherness
and passionate conversations.

While bits of the summer drifts lightly in the wind
and leaves are turning brown and gold.

Let's get lost in a world made of great books, warm tea, and softness,
on rainy autumn days.
