

GET THE ICK

IT'S NOT YOU, IT'S THEM.

If you've got the original version of Get The Ick, then you know what you're doing. All you have to do is print off the cards and you're good to go. If you're new to this ick business, then check out the rules on the next page.

THE RULES

1. To play, you'll need at least two people.
2. Grab a player token. Use the ones on the next page - or grab any small object from around the house (a nut, coffee bean etc.)
3. The aim of the game is to correctly predict which card, from a line up of three, gives your friend the biggest ick.
4. Choose a player to take the hot seat.
5. Lay out three icks before them.
6. They secretly write down on a piece of paper the card they find most icky. Or, use the hot seat tokens on the next page.
7. Now, place your player token on the card you think the player in the hot seat chose.
8. Time for the big reveal. The player in the hot seat announces which card they chose.
9. Whoever guessed right, gets a point.
10. Keep rotating who's in the hot seat. Play as many rounds as you want, but make sure everyone has an equal amount of goes!
11. Tally up the scores, and the player with the most points at the ends, wins.
12. Try not to come last... that's an ick.
