EXPERIENCE THE POWER of the RARE AND THE BEAUTIFUL

DARK BLUE GRAPHIC BENI M'RIRT RUG

A one-of-a-kind plush rug made of the finest sheep's wool from New Zealand, hand woven by the women of the Beni M'rirt tribe of Morocco. A pure and extra-virgin material, New Zealand wool is considered the pinnacle in quality, offering unparalleled comfort and warmth, natural fire and stain-resistance, and less shedding. Utilizing a dense weave and deep pile, this multisensory work of art looks as breathtaking as it feels under foot.

CARE

Avoid direct exposure to the sun. Natural raw wool may contain small fibers during weaving, which over time may rise to the surface. Vacuum for regular maintenance. Immediately remove spills by absorbing with a clean, light colored cloth. Stains can be cleaned gently with neutral soap. If the entire rug needs cleaning, use professional dry cleaning only.
