INSTRUCTIONS:

- Write in the toilet before you wipe your bottom (duh, must I explain why?).
- You're only allowed five minutes per page (or when you're done with bombing, whichever comes first).
- If you see a question or activity that stumps you, skip to the next page!
- Answer all questions in the personality tests as truthfully as you can.
- Keep this diary safe, don't let it fall in the hands of a sibling.
- Keep it clean and dry in a secret place (like in your underwear drawer, or where your mother keeps the dictionary).
- If you develop piles from spending too much time in the toilet with this book, don't blame me!

People call me Famous Amos. How original! It was Mum's idea to name me after her favourite cookies, and now, I'm stuck with it. But fame isn't a bad thing, it gets you attention. I've read that famous celebrities start their road to fame as young as 12! Christina Aguilera and Justin Timberlake were 12 when they competed in auditions to get into The New Mickey Mouse Club. Justin Bieber was only 12 when his first performance posted on YouTube got ten million views. Imagine that! Twelve and already famous! Today, they are famous stars who are pop culture idols for their many fans. So how did they groom themselves to fame? They must have started somewhere.

I like to think that as Singapore's Most Famous Toilet Diarist, I am qualified to share how you can get started on the road to fame. This D.I.Y. diary is peppered with activities, doodles and personality tests to check if you're ready for it. Answer all the questions as truthfully as you can. You will be amazed at what you will learn about yourself.

And in case you're wondering why Whoopie, a.k.a. WPI, the whiny, pesky and irritating sister of mine, is also credited on the cover of this book, it's because I'm feeling generous. No kidding.

Aalright... that's not quite true. Mum said that she has found a publisher who's willing to publish this D.I.Y. Diary. The only problem is, I'm short on ideas. Then Whoopie suggested she can add some lines! I thought, why not? More lines mean more ideas, and with more pages, I'll get paid more! Yeah!

So here's the deal, use this diary, fill it with honest answers and draw as much as you want! But keep it safe. One day when you've made it, who knows, you might be the next Prime Minister of Singapore, or maybe a famous movie star or singer, remember that it was Amos Lee who taught you how to get on the road to fame. Start writing now. Have fun and good luck!

ADOPT A COOL NAME!

Do You Have a Unique Name?

Here's a test. Do you know five other people with the same name? Well, if you do, tough luck! You're not going to stand out when the Movie Director calls out your name in an audition. So what should you do? Here's a quick fix.

Write your name:

E.g. A n g e l i n e.

Replace the last letter with a different vowel

(either a, e, i, o, or u), Angelina, Angelini, Angelino, Angelinu...

Read the name out aloud. Do you like how it "sounds" and "looks"?

You can adopt this as a stage name, or here's another idea, you can give your pet hamster this new name! So the next time you turn up for an audition with 200 other Angelines, tell the Casting Director that you're the only Angeline with a pet hamster named Angelini. Bet you will really stand out!

Here's Another Tip

Write your name:

E.g. S e b a s t i a n

Add a "z" to your name, it adds pizzazz!

S e b a s t i a n z

Sign Your Name As an Autograph

Trace the letters (of the alphabet) given here. Isn't it fun? You can almost pretend you're back in kindergarten, learning to write in cursive for the first time, aah!

Aa Bb Cc Dd

Ee Ff Gg Hh

Ii Jj Kk Ll

Mm Nn Oo Pp

Qq Rr Ss Tt

Uu Vv Ww Xx

Yy Zz

Here is the first thing you must do!
Get your family members to sign their names!
Don't forget your friends too!
