About the Creators

Dave Chua lives in Bedok, Singapore.

His first novel, Gone Case, received a Singapore Literature Prize Commendation Award in 1996. Gone Case Book 1 and 2 with artist Koh Hong Teng were published in 2010 and 2011 respectively. Chua's latest book, The Beating and Other Stories, has been longlisted for the 2012 Frank O'Connor International Short Story prize.

Xiao Yan is currently studying at the School of Art, Design and Media at Nanyang Technological University. She enjoys drawing and painting scenes of absurdist chaos and mayhem—some of which can be found on her website: thirddtentacle.net. The Girl Under the Bed is her first full-length graphic novel.

During Hungry Ghost Month, the gates of hell open and out pour the dead spirits. Jingli, a Secondary One student, discovers a ghost named Xiaomei sleeping under her bed. The two develop a friendship and, together with Weizhong, a boy who is also a medium, set out to solve the mystery of Xiaomei's haunting. Set in modern day Singapore, The Girl Under the Bed is a coming-of-age tale that will thrill readers, while sending chills down their spines.
