Every Lunar New Year, Grandma would ask me the same question.

"Are you number 1 in class?"

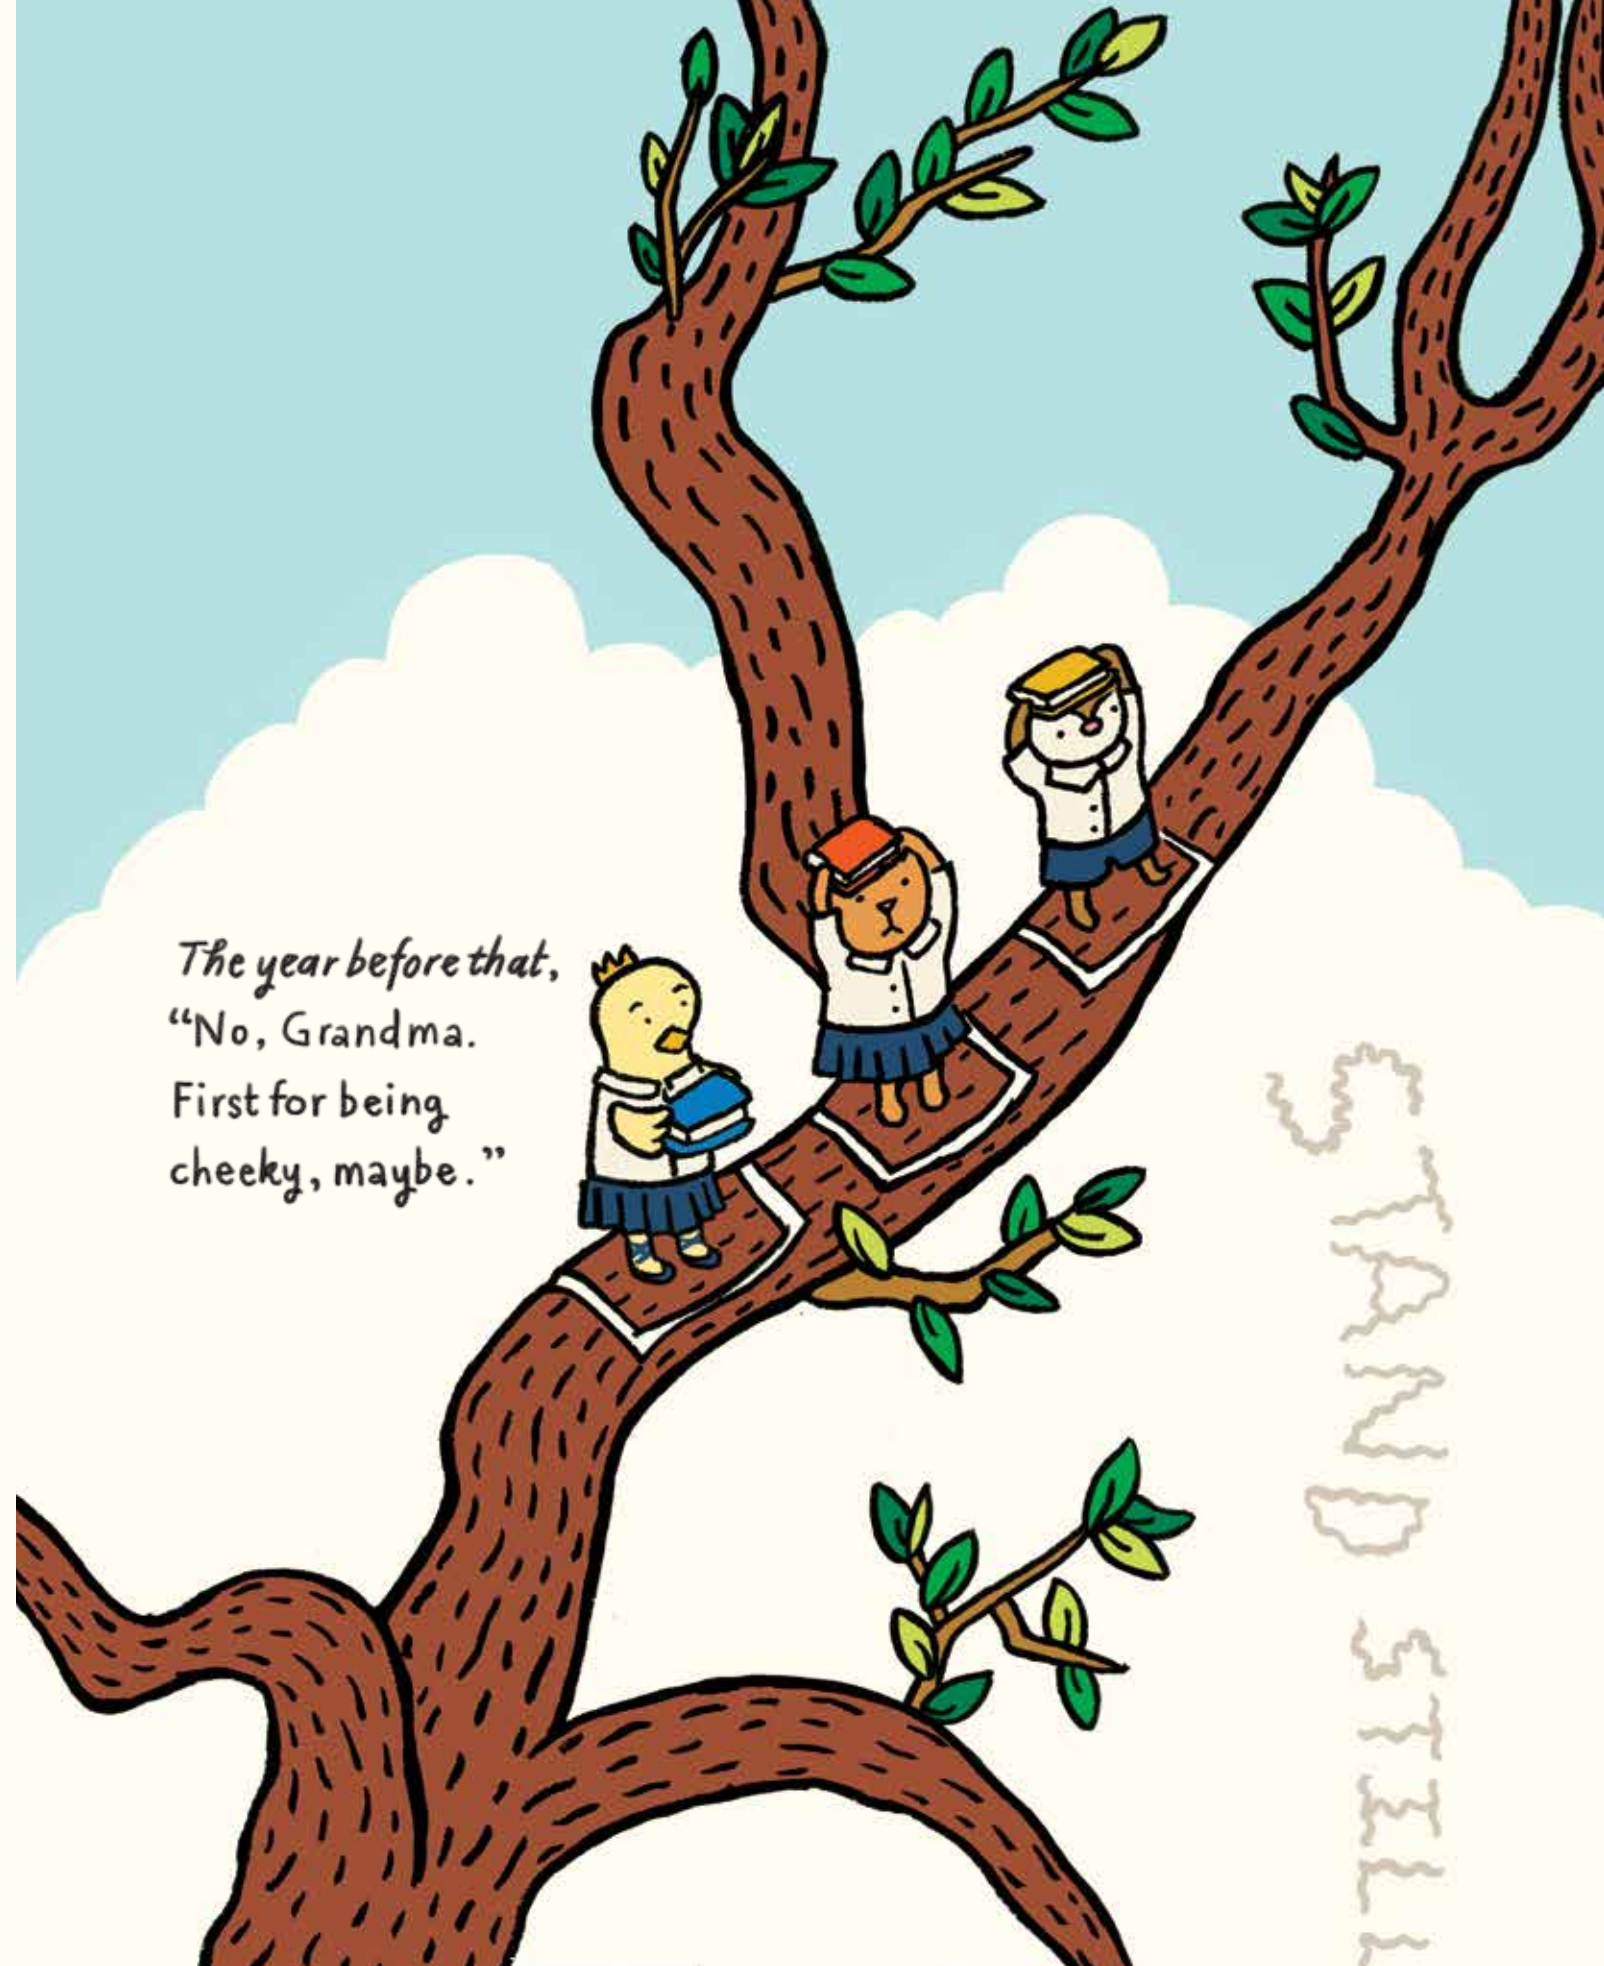

"No, Grandma. I came in ninth."

Last year, "No, Grandma. I got fifth place."

*The year before that,
"No, Grandma.
First for being cheeky, maybe."*

STAND STILL

It's time for our yearly reunion dinner with Grandma.
We love Grandma but, oh dear,
is she going to ask those same questions again? They can be rather tiring. But, maybe, the answers aren't that important after all.
