HE'S TOO SMALL AND WEAK,
HE CAN'T HELP US WIN!

Lucas the Lizard, Brady the Bengal Cat and Coco the Cockatoo are having their first PE lesson at their new school.

They are playing basketball, and Lucas is the last one to be picked for a team.

Even though basketball is Lucas' favourite sport, he is playing badly.

Getting picked on and being called names by the school bullies—the boxers Diego, Darius and Dave—sure isn't helping.

LOSER!

BUTTERFINGERS!

SHRIMP!

Meet the Kung Fu Force—Brady the Bengal Cat, Lucas the Lizard and Coco the Cockatoo. Together with Shifu Seong, they are called on to save the day!

It's the first day at a new school and Lucas is bullied by a trio of barking boxers. But when a burst tap at the canteen causes a boba whirlpool of mega proportions, Lucas has to put aside his anger and work with the Kung Fu Force to save their schoolmates—even the bullies.

Robin Leong is a renowned kung fu master and actor. He became a household name in Singapore starring in several popular TV series, including the police drama Triple Nine and the martial arts drama The Challenge (谁与争锋). In 2002 Robin established Ch'i Life Studio, a premier martial arts studio with thousands of young students worldwide.

Eric Wong is the artist and illustrator behind the miniature 3D creations in the bestselling Karung Guni Boy, brought to life in an art installation by National Gallery Singapore.
