It's just one more day until Deepavali,
here in Singapore.
We're getting ready to celebrate the festival we adore!

For good luck, I make patterns with an array of coloured rice. Amma hangs marigolds and mango leaves for our home to be blessed and look nice.

In the kitchen, murukkus are being made.
Appa tells me to give it a try.
I make a few spirals
and drop them in the pan to fry.

*It's just one more day until Deepavali,

We're getting ready to celebrate
the festival we adore!*

Spend Deepavali with a little girl and her family and learn about joyous traditions.
