Sam, Sebbie and Di-Di-Di
clapped their hands with delight.
They were going to the Night Safari,
the only zoo that's open at night.

“It’s great that we get to stay up late,
but will the animals be asleep or awake?”
asked Sam, Sebbie and Di-Di-Di.

“All the animals will be awake,
for the night is their day and the day is their night,” Papa and Mama explained.

The night was very starry
when Papa, Mama, Sam, Sebbie and Di-Di-Di boarded the tram at the Night Safari.

“Good evening!” said the rams as Sam, Sebbie and Di-Di-Di waved from their tram.

“Good evening!” said the goats
as they drank from their moat.

“Good evening!” said the deer,
who were full of good cheer.

Then the tram stopped quite suddenly with a bump and a bam!

“Oh, goodness gracious me!
What was that?” asked Sam.

Lions, rhinos and elephants, oh my!

Sam, Sebbie and Di-Di-Di are visiting the Night Safari and come face-to-face with many creatures who are awake at night.

But what can be done about a very sleepy giraffe who just won't let them pass?
