Sam, Sebbie and Di-Di-Di

A Day with the Duchess

DAVID SEOW
Illustrated by SOEFARA JAFNEY

EPIGRAM BOOKS / SINGAPORE

Sam, Sebbie and Di-Di-Di live in sunny Singapore. While Sebbie and Di-Di-Di like soldiers, pilots and action heroes, Sam likes princesses. She even named one of her hamsters Kate, after her very favourite princess in the whole wide world, Catherine, Duchess of Cambridge.

One day Sebbie had the most exciting news:
“Prince William, Duke of Cambridge and his princess, Catherine, Duchess of Cambridge are in Singapore! They’re going to Gardens by the Bay tomorrow!”

“Hooray!” cried Sam. “Let’s take Kate to meet them.”

Early the next morning, Sam, Sebbie, Di-Di-Di and Kate went to Gardens by the Bay. A lot of people were already there and it soon became really, really crowded. Then it became really, really hot and Kate began to fuss. She did not like the heat.

“The princess will be here soon,” Sam promised. Kate sighed and crawled into Sam’s pocket.

Sam loves princesses.
She is thrilled that the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are visiting Singapore! Sam even named her pet hamster Kate, after the princess. But when the siblings try to meet the princess at one of her stops,
Kate gets scared and runs away!
Will Sam ever find Kate? Will she ever get to meet the princess?

Find out in this royal adventure!
