THE PHANTOM OF OXLEY
CASTLE

The logo features three cartoon princesses. One on the left wears a pink top and purple skirt, holding a book. One in the middle wears a yellow top and red shorts, with arms raised. One on the right wears a blue dress and holds a red pom-pom. The text 'THE PHANTOM OF' is arched above them in purple. 'OXLEY' and 'CASTLE' are in large, light blue, outlined letters below.

SINGAPORE · LONDON

Once upon a time, on a tiny tropical island,
there was a grand old castle with 38 rooms.

Living in the castle were two princes, a princess and their dog Coffee. The children could do anything they wanted—well, if not for the pesky butler, OB Markus.

One moonless night, as the royal highnesses got ready for bed, they heard a strange noise.

“Whash dat?” asked Prince Humphrey the Youngest.

“Maybe it’s a ghost!” Princess Harriet cried.

“Based on my vectors,” Prince Hector the Eldest replied, pushing his glasses up his nose, “the noise is coming from the dungeons.”

Meet Prince Hector the Eldest, Princess Harriet the Brave and Prince Humphrey the Youngest.
They live in Oxley Castle with their pesky butler, OB Markus.

One night, the children hear a strange noise coming from the dungeon and decide to investigate.
