Antonio already knew how to read all by himself but he wanted to share the joy of reading with somebody.

So he grabbed his favourite book and went in search of someone to read with him.

Antonio asked his mother,
"Will you read my book
with me?"

"I can't right now, I'm busy,"
his mother said. "But later
tonight we can read together."

Antonio already knew how to read by himself. He just wanted to share his favourite book with someone.

But Antonio didn't expect that everybody would be so busy. Nobody had time to read with him... until he had a chance meeting.
