

The Villages of North Kingstown: THE STORY OF SLOCUM

Exhibit, Film Screening and Talk

Join us to view the premiere of a film on the village of Slocum, featuring interviews with Alvin Noss, the longtime Slocum resident who passed away at age 106 in 2020. Mr. Noss's detailed recollections capture the changes in the village over a vast span of time.

Producer of this film, Donna Desautels, will be on hand to speak about its creation and historians Tim Cranston and Jim Garman will talk about the history of the Slocum village.

This event coincides with an exhibit of historic Slocum items that will be on display at the North Kingstown Free Library for the months of April and May.
