Tupperware (“Tupperware,” “we,” “us” or “our”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting it through compliance with this Privacy Policy. This Privacy Policy describes how Tupperware may collect, use, and share the information you provide us and the information we collect in the course of operating our business, particularly in association with your use of this website and other websites, tools, applications, or other platforms where this Privacy Policy is posted or linked (collectively, the “Services”). By using the Services, you acknowledge you have read and understood the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy, please do not use the Services.

Those with disabilities may also access this Privacy Policy in an alternative text-based format, such as HTML, RTF, or PDF by clicking here.

Your use of the Services is also governed by our Terms of Use.

Please note that Tupperware sells premium products across multiple categories through a variety of methods, including through a direct-to-consumer model. Through this direct-to-consumer method, we sell our products through an independent sales force (hereinafter referred to as “Independent Sales Representatives” or “Consultants”) – that is, they are not employees or agents of Tupperware but we have granted them certain rights to sell our products. Therefore, we do not control, and are not responsible or liable for, the collection, use or disclosure of your information by an Independent Sales Representative. If you provide information to an Independent Sales Representative through the Services, we will have access to it and shall treat it in accordance with this Privacy Policy. Independent Sales Representatives may provide us with information regarding their customers and the Consultants that they have sponsored; in which case, we will treat all such information provided by Independent Sales Representatives, once in our possession, in accordance with this Privacy Policy. If you are the customer of an Independent Sales Representative, you should check with them directly to learn about their data privacy practices.

1. Collection of Information

As used in this Privacy Policy, “personal information” is information that identifies, relates to, describes, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. We may collect the following categories of information from and about you:

- Identifiers, such as your name, e-mail address, phone number, and postal address;
- Demographics, such as your gender or age;
- Internet or other electronic network activity information, such as your IP address or browsing history;

- Geolocation information, such as information we receive about your device location, subject to your settings;
- Inferences regarding preferences or other characteristics;
- Commercial information, such as your password and purchase histories or tendencies;
- Payment information, such as payment card numbers;
- Audio, electronic, visual, thermal, olfactory, or similar information, such as photographs or voice recordings;
- Education information, such as if you apply for employment with Tupperware; and
- Professional information, such as employer or job title.

We may collect personal information about you from a variety of sources, including:

- From You: We collect information that you submit to us. For example, when you use the Services, register to receive information, products or services available through the Services or interact with us in other ways, we will collect any information you voluntarily provide, and we may also request optional information to support your use of the Services. We also collect any information that you voluntarily enter into any postings, comments, or forums within the Services. If you send an e-mail to us, we will collect your e-mail address and the full content of your e-mail, including attached files and other information you choose to provide to us. If you purchase a product or service through the Services, our third-party payment processors will collect the billing and financial information they need to process your charges. This may include your postal address, email address, and financial information.
- From Your Devices: When you use our Services, we may collect information about the devices you use to access the Services, including hardware model, operating system and version, Internet Protocol ("IP") address and other unique device identifiers, mobile network information, and information about the device's interaction with our Services. We also collect information about how you use our Services, including your access times, browser types, and language. This type of data enables us to understand how often individuals use parts of the Services so we can analyze and improve them. To collect this information, we use cookies and web beacons, and other similar technologies. To learn more about how we automatically receive and record information when you interact with the Services, please see the section "Cookies, Tracking, & Third-Party Advertising" below. Note that this Privacy Policy covers only how we use information collected via cookies; it does not cover the use of such information by third parties.
- Location Information: We may collect different types of information about your location, including general information, such as the city, state, and/or zip code associated with your IP Address, and, if you agree, more specific location information that is provided through the GPS functionality on mobile devices used to access the Services. We may use such location information to customize the Services, including advertising that is presented to you. In order to do this, your location information may be passed along to our affiliates, agents, vendors or advertisers.

- Social Media Networks and Other Third Parties: We may obtain information about you or your use of the Services from third parties and sources, such as our vendors, like web hosting providers, analytics providers, or advertisers. You may give us permission to access your information from services offered by third parties, including social media networks. The information we obtain from third party services depends on your account/privacy settings with those third parties and the third parties' privacy policies, so be sure to check those policies and to adjust your settings to meet your preferences. When you access the Services through social media networks and other third-party platforms, you are authorizing Tupperware to collect, store, and use such information and content in accordance with this Privacy Policy. Please keep in mind that any information provided to us by a third party may also be subject to that third party's privacy policy.
- From Independent Sales Representatives: If you authorize an order with an Independent Sales Representative, they may input your information required to complete the order.

2. Use & Retention of Information

We use the information we collect from you for the following purposes:

- To deliver products, services, programs, information, or newsletters, including to help us make decisions about products or promotions to offer, or to guide decisions for entering into strategic relationships;
- To process your payments;
- To alert you to special offers, updated information, and other new services or to forward promotional materials;
- To manage your subscriptions;
- To facilitate better servicing of your account by an Independent Sales Representative;
- To fulfill the requirements of our agreements with Independent Sales Representatives;
- To fulfill the terms of a promotion;
- To ensure the Services are relevant to your needs;
- To provide technical support and to respond to your inquiries;
- To communicate about new features;
- To protect our IT architecture and prevent fraud or potentially illegal activities;
- To enforce the terms governing use of the Services and/or to notify you of a material change to our Privacy Policy;
- To monitor, guard against, and enforce our policies, including those related to unauthorized product reselling;
- To investigate allegations of misconduct or violation of our policies;

- To conduct audits;
- To contact you in response to inquiry forms (e.g., contact forms);
- To solicit your feedback to improve your user experience;
- To facilitate and administer the services that we offer through the Services;
- To communicate information regarding your account, and other information related to your interaction with our products or services; and
- To comply with any applicable law, regulation, legal process or governmental request.

We will retain the personal information provided for as long as it is needed to fulfill the purpose for which it is collected.

We may aggregate and/or de-identify personal information we collect and use it for any purpose. To the extent we deidentify any data originally based on personal information, we will maintain and use such data only in deidentified form and will not attempt to reidentify the data.

3. Disclosure of Information

We may disclose your information in the following circumstances:

- With your consent. We may disclose your information if you ask or authorize us to do so. For example, when you interact with an Independent Sales Representative through the Services.
- Among group companies. We may disclose your information with our affiliated and subsidiary companies and other partners or collaborators for the purposes of processing, analyzing, or storing your information or otherwise as needed to provide the Services to you or achieve other purposes for which we collect information, in each case, consistent with the terms of this Privacy Policy.
- With service providers. We engage service providers to perform a variety of services and functions for us, such as data storage, order fulfillment, transmitting emails, and managing digital content. We may disclose your information with such service providers subject to confidentiality obligations consistent with this Privacy Policy.
- To comply with legal requirements and to protect you, us, and others. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Privacy Policy, we reserve the right to retain and disclose your information at our discretion if we believe in good faith that such retention and disclosure is necessary to: (i) comply with relevant laws or to respond to subpoenas, warrants, or similar process served on us; (ii) protect and defend our rights or property, you, or third parties; or (iii) ensure the safety and security of our Services, systems, and of our customers and third parties.
- In connection with a business transfer. In the event we go through a business transition such as a merger, acquisition by another company, bankruptcy, reorganization, or sale of all or a portion of our assets, your information may be sold or transferred as part of that transaction. You acknowledge that such transfers may occur and are permitted by this Privacy Policy and that the new entity may continue to process your information as set forth in this Privacy Policy.

- If the information has been aggregated, de-identified, or otherwise does not identify you personally. We may disclose information that has been aggregated, de-identified, or otherwise does not identify you or information that you choose to make public. This Privacy Policy does not limit our use or disclosure of de-identified information in any way, and we reserve the right to use and disclose such information to our partners, advertisers, and any other third parties at our discretion.

If you do not agree or do not consent to the disclosure of your information in any manner described above, you should not use the Services or interact with us.

4. Collection and Use of Information from Children

The Services are not intended for children. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children, and the Services are not designed to attract children. In the event that we learn that a child under the age of 16 has provided personal information to us, we will delete or destroy such personal information as soon as possible.

5. Notice of Public Posting Areas

Please note that any information you include in a message you post to any chat room, forum, blog, or other public posting area is available to anyone with Internet access. If you do not want people to know your email address, for example, don't include it in any message you post publicly. PLEASE BE EXTREMELY CAREFUL WHEN DISCLOSING ANY INFORMATION IN CHAT ROOMS, FORUMS, BLOGS, AND OTHER PUBLIC POSTING AREAS. WE ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE USE BY OTHERS OF THE INFORMATION THAT YOU DISCLOSE IN CHAT ROOMS, FORUMS, BLOGS, AND OTHER PUBLIC POSTING AREAS.

6. Third-Party Links

When you use the Services, there may be links and you may be directed to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of such other sites. If you have any questions about how these other sites use your information, you should review their policies and contact them directly.

7. Access and Email Opt-Out

In the event you have an account with us, you may utilize that account to access your personal information to ensure it is correct, accurate, and current. To delete your information or to edit or modify your information if you do not have an account with us, please contact us using the contact information provided below. We will manage deletion requests in accordance with the law and our record retention policy.

We communicate with users who subscribe to our Services on a regular basis via email. For communications that are promotional in nature, we provide you the opportunity to exercise an opt-out choice if you do not want to receive these other types of communication from us, such as emails or updates from us regarding new services and products offered on the Services. The opt-out choice may be exercised by ticking the appropriate box if such checkbox is available at the points where personal information is collected or by contacting us. We will process your request to unsubscribe as soon as possible, but please be aware that in some circumstances you may receive a few more messages until your request to unsubscribe is processed. You also may opt out of receiving such emails by clicking on the “unsubscribe” link within the text of the email.

8. Security

We implement reasonable security measures to ensure the security of your personal information. Please understand, however, that no data transmissions over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Consequently, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us and you understand that any information that you transfer to us is done at your own risk. We recommend that you take additional measures to protect yourself, including by installing anti-virus software, closing browsers after use, keeping confidential your passwords, and making sure that you regularly update software and apps. If we learn of a security systems breach we may attempt to notify you electronically so that you can take appropriate protective steps. By using the Services or otherwise providing personal information to us, you agree that we can communicate with you electronically regarding security, privacy, and administrative issues relating to your use of the Services. We may post a notice via the Services if a security breach occurs. We may also send an email to you at the email address you have provided to us in these circumstances. Depending on where you live, you may have a legal right to receive notice of a security breach in writing.

9. International Data Transfers

We are based in the US. If you choose to provide us with information, please understand that your personal information may be transferred to the US and that we may transfer that information to our affiliates and subsidiaries or to other third parties, across borders, and from your country or jurisdiction to other countries or jurisdictions around the world. We put in place appropriate operational, procedural, and technical measures in order to ensure the protection of your personal information. You acknowledge you understand that by providing your personal information: (i) your personal information will be used for the uses identified above in accordance with this Privacy Policy; and (ii) your personal information may be transferred to the US and other jurisdictions as indicated above, in accordance with applicable law.

10. Cookies, Tracking, & Third-Party Advertising

We use Cookies and similar tracking technologies to track activity on our Services and store certain information. The tracking technologies that may be used are beacons, tags and scripts to collect and track information and to improve and analyze the Services.

Do Not Track (DNT) is an optional browser setting that allows you to limit your sharing preferences with respect to third parties. We do not respond to DNT signals.

For detailed information on the cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them, please refer to the Cookie Settings.

11. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time. When we do, we will also revise the “Last Updated” date at the top. If we make material changes, we will notify you by placing a prominent notice on the Services and/or by sending you an email at the email address we have on file for you. We encourage you to periodically review this Privacy Policy to keep up to date on how we are handling your personal information.
