

A series of hand-knotted rugs inspired by the vibrant and geometric artwork of Philadelphia based artist Elyce Abrams. Known for her exploration of complex emotional and existential themes, Abrams' abstract style manifests in paintings characterized by layered colors and dynamic compositions. Her work, rich in movement and intricate shifts, serves as a foundation for this collection, where the essence of life's continuous journey is elegantly captured.

The Kronos Collection reflects the artist's themes through its innovative designs, embodying the transition from hard-edged patterns to fluid strokes. The collection's name, "Kronos," pays homage to the Greek god of time, highlighting the rugs' ability to capture the evolving essence of moments. Each piece in this collection translates Abrams' dynamic layers and color shifts into textiles that are almost interwoven with the vibrancy of life's ongoing narrative.
