BE a HELPER

Boomer loves to help people. You can be a helper, too! Can you help mom or dad carry the groceries? Can you help your teacher at school? Make a list of the ways you can help others. Cut out and make your helper necklace and wear it proudly!

Something spooks Boomer at the Pupperdine Academy graduation ceremony! Connect the dots and color.

I'M a SUPERHERO!

Service dogs are real life superheroes. They can guide people who are blind, assist the hearing impaired, calm a child with autism, and even warn someone who is about to have a seizure! If you had a superhero power, what would you want it to be? What would you do with your power?

MY SUPERHERO POWER IS _____.

BOOMER THE THERAPY DOG

STARRING BOOMER!

Author Vanessa Keel describes service dogs as real-life superheroes. Imagine if Boomer were cast in a superhero movie. What would his costume be? What amazing powers would he have to help those in need? Create a movie poster that advertises a superhero named Boomer. Include the title of the movie and a color illustration of Boomer using his extraordinary powers to help someone in need. Think of a slogan or words that would make audiences want to see the movie.
