

Curriculum Vitae
Daniel Murphy, DC
P.O. Box 7044
Auburn, CA 95604

Education:

1. Undergraduate three years at the University of California, San Diego (no degree)
2. 1978, graduated from Western States Chiropractic College, Magna cum laude
3. 1986, Diplomate Status with the American Board of Chiropractic Orthopedics
4. Have accumulated approximately the following post-graduate continuing education hours: Biomechanics, 350 hours; Orthopedics, 700 hours; x-ray, 300 hours; Neurology, 700 hours.

License: California Lic # 12774, Active in Good Standing

Clinical Experience:

1. Full time clinical practice October 1978 – April 1992
2. Part time clinical practice July 1992 to present

Undergraduate Teaching Experience:

1982 to present and continuing, part time undergraduate faculty at Life Chiropractic College-West, in Hayward, CA.

Current class is Management of Spinal Disorders.

Postgraduate Teaching Experience:

Have taught approximately 675 twelve hour postgraduate continuing education classes.

Class topics include: biomechanics of vehicular collisions; biomechanics of spine trauma; biomechanics of pediatric vehicular collisions; soft tissue injury and repair; pain and proprioceptive neurology; the management of spine and spinal related disorders.

Have taught postgraduate classes for Life Chiropractic College-West, Los Angeles Chiropractic College, Life Chiropractic College East, Logan Chiropractic College, Palmer Chiropractic College, Cleveland Chiropractic College of Kansas City, and Northwestern Chiropractic College of Minneapolis.

Publications:

1989: Chapter V in Spinal Manipulation: "Posture, Tissues, Neurology and Health", published by Chiropractic Biophysics, Inc.

1990 and continuing: Quarterly Column in the American Journal of Clinical Chiropractic

1996: Contributing author, Motor Vehicle Collision Injuries, Aspen Publication

1998: Contributing author, Pediatric Chiropractic, Williams & Wilkins

Special Awards:

1. 1987, 1991 and 1995: Post-Graduate Educator of the Year, given by the International Chiropractic Association
2. 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997 and 1998: Clinical Science Faculty Award, given by the students at Life Chiropractic College-West
3. 1997: The Carl S. Cleveland, Jr., Educator of the Year, given by the International Chiropractic Association of California