

During Her lifetime, Princess Grace (née Grace Kelly) supported numerous emerging artists and upon Her untimely death in 1982, Her husband Prince Rainier III and friends (including Frank Sinatra, Gregory Peck, Cary Grant) honored Her legacy by creating the Princess Grace Foundation-USA.

Today, the Princess Grace Foundation-USA carries on the legacy of Princess Grace, and Her commitment to advance the arts in the United States. Through the annual Princess Grace Awards, the Foundation supports extraordinary emerging artists in theater, dance, and film.

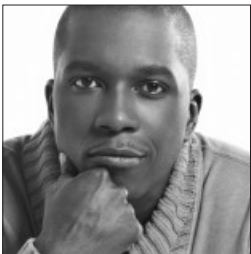

Overseen by Her son, Prince Albert II of Monaco, the Princess Grace Foundation-USA is proud to have supported more than 850 artists through game-changing grants and nurturing their artistic growth throughout their careers.

PRINCESS GRACE AWARD WINNERS

From Broadway to Hollywood, Princess Grace Award winners are creating or involved in today's lauded artistic projects, leading the United States' top artistic institutions, and teaching and mentoring the next generations of artistic talent. Notable Princess Grace Award winners include:
