Entrants can register for the contest at the cosplay sign-in/judging table. If your costume is being judged for craftsmanship you must have a printed reference of your character for the accuracy score. It is preferred for it to be a color printout, but bringing figures, tablets, manga, books, laptops, etc., will also be accepted. We will schedule you a time at sign-up to come back for judging of your outfit. Judging will be on 10-minute blocks so make sure to come a little early for your time just in case someone drops out. You must be on time for your judging spot or you will have to re-register for a time if there is one still available. Coming early and waiting is encouraged!
