

VIOA

THE VASANTA INSTITUTE OF AYURVEDA

The VIOA center is located one hour East of Pune, Maharashtra, India in a multi-purpose farming and manufacturing village near Uruli Kanchan. Incorporated in 2009 and in operation since 2013, this 10,000 square foot facility has an administration building, classroom, library, pharmacy, clinical examination, kitchen, and dining room. There is a separate Panchakarma two-room treatment facility with individual bathrooms as well as two residential buildings with a total of 14 double occupancy rooms, each with individual bathrooms. The beautiful facility has been built to Western standards of drinking water, bathroom design, and all around Western building architecture.

The Vasanta Institute of Ayurveda operates to its customers and clients Applied Ayurveda Wellness programs and Clinical Ayurveda Panchakarma between the end of July and the middle December each year. The VIOA facility is closed to the public. There are NO tours of the facility but exceptions are made for Dr. Vasant Lad invited guests.
