KETTLEBELLS

Kettlebells set is something unique, which will certainly increase the prestige of the place.

LOVA™ Luxury Kettlebells Set.

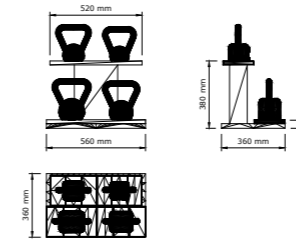

A handmade set from natural European walnut wood and stainless steel. Just like other PENT.® brand products, also here many hours of design work and craftsmanship have created something special in terms of form and practical use.

The stable, simple stand along with unusual form of kettlebells, create something unique which will certainly raise the prestige of the place. Each element is handmade with attention given to every detail. The LOVA™ set comes in light and medium versions. All details can be viewed by downloading the technical drawings next to the image.
