Editors' Picks: The Best Beauty Products We Tried in May

by JESA MARIE CALAOR UPDATED ON JUN 01, 2022 04:04PM EDT

It's going to be a hot summer in every sense of the word. With the steamy months arriving as we speak, Team Byrdie's beauty mood board is filled with juicy, glowing skin, fiery makeup hues, and healthy, resilient strands. Luckily, some of our favorite brands have come out with new products and tools to help us create these looks.

When I wore my hair in a silk press last month, I liked to apply Shaeri's Multi-Use Care Oil to my ends to keep them hydrated and shiny. It's infused with five nourishing oils—prickly pear, jojoba, sweet almond, macadamia nut, and safflower seed. The best part? This multipurpose product also works as an oil treatment, body oil, or protectant before going for a swim in the pool or ocean.
