Oh the savings!

BY TZR BEAUTY TEAM 20 HOURS AGO

Commonly thought of as the unofficial start to summer, Memorial Day ushers in a new season filled with beach days, barbecues, and for most beauty aficionados, a refresh to their most-used beauty products. The holiday marks a time to swap out your SPF 30 for perhaps a higher level of 50 or 70, and opt for lighter weight formulas in skin care and makeup. Luckily, the 2022 Memorial Day beauty sales promise massive deals that allow you to save on everything from hair care to makeup so your summer beauty refresh doesn't cost an arm and a leg.
